Presentation

Update and Presentation by Artist Laureate Victoria Marks

Victoria Marks, Artist Laureate, provided a presentation on the first four months of the Culver City Artist Laureate program from July through October 2025; reported attending events and meeting with people to gain different perspectives in order to answer the question of how people care for and belong to a city; discussed information gathering; the letter of introduction she sent to all Culver City employees; a topic that surfaced around generational changes occurring in the City; her interview of Tom Welsh after attending the Culver City Summer Concert Series; the August Culver City Arts Foundation Board of Directors meeting; encouraging people to get to know one another better; the September Artist Meet Up at the Culver Hotel; meetings with Bubba Fish, Kim Mitchell, Heather Moses, Alicia Ide, Jill Thomsen and Hope Parrish; monthly meetings with CAC staff; Culver City Art Walk & Roll Festival; creation of Connecting Culver City; participation by teen docents; she presented a video incorporating some of the answers to the question of what people hoped for their community with a score composed by Jesse Pearlman; discussed looking at ways to continue building community; establishing a free drop-in community Action Conversation starting in January 2026; and she welcomed questions and requested thoughts and support on how to move forward.

Discussion ensued between Ms. Marks, staff, and Commissioners regarding production of physical objects; support for engaging in an exploration of meaningful art that is consumed digitally; sharing different viewpoints and ideologies through art; continued information gathering through Connecting Culver City; use of the digital content produced from the program as a tool to learn more about the City and bringing people together to connect the community through art.

Additional discussion ensued between Ms. Marks, staff, and Commissioners regarding program initiative; conversations between the older and younger generations of Culver City; creation of a plan for outreach and engagement; social media; gathering contact information for residents participating in the videos; and utilization of parks, the Senior Center, and schools in all of the different neighborhoods to increase engagement.
