Items From Staff

Dan Hernandez, Parks Recreation and Community Services Director, provided an update on the patio project for the Senior Center; reported interviewing finalists for the Park Supervisor position; announced that the California Parks and Recreation Society had chosen the Senior Citizens Association for the Champions of the Community award with recognition scheduled at the Conference on March 11, 2016; he reported work on the departmental work plan and budget calendars noting that they would be going before the City Council in the coming weeks and would return to the Commission for review and comment; he discussed operational work plans noting that the Commission could adopt their own work plans for the year if desired; he discussed County approval of funding for the Syd Kronenthal Park Age 2 - 5 Playground Rehabilitation project; and the finalization of bid documents.

o0o

Items From Commissioners

Commissioner Stuart expressed appreciation to Mr. Hernandez for his diligence in moving the Syd Kronenthal project forward; she requested a meeting with the new Park Supervisor once that position is filled; she asked for a report on Fiesta La Ballona in July; and she asked that last year's letter request to the City Council be sent to Commissioner Rickards for his information.

Vice Chair Heineman discussed criteria for the selection process for the Champions of the Community award and she thanked staff for their hard work putting the nominations together.

o0o

Item A-2

(1) Review of the Parks, Recreation and Community Services (PRCS) Department Capital Improvement Projects Managed by the Parks Division: (2) Review of the Parks Division's Proposed Fiscal Year 2016-2017 Staffing Recommendation; and (3) Consideration of Providing Comments to the City Council Regarding the Information Contained Herein, as Part of the Fiscal Year 2016-2017 Budget Process.

Chair Zeidman invited public comment.

No cards were received and no speakers came forward.

Dan Hernandez, Parks, Recreation and Community Services Director, provided a summary of the material of record; discussed maintenance and renovation to parks; communication with neighborhood associations; capital improvement projects managed by the Parks Division; funding sources; ongoing repairs and improvements; irrigation audits; addressing drought conditions; carryover; operating in a reactive fashion rather than being proactive; increasing part time labor hours; reclassifying current part time student workers; pending and planned projects; current staffing; and the need for a Project Manager and a regular part time maintenance worker classification.

Discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding the Culver West playground rehabilitation; playground surfacing; wish list items; the shade structure at Culver City Park; new lights for Veterans Park; costs; hiring a grant writer; the Lindbergh Park playground rehabilitation; adding an item to install a walking path around the park since there is no sidewalk; the suggestion to create a resting area below the trail; irrigating the slopes at Culver City Park; the focus on City medians; jurisdiction of the trees; plans for the Senior Center; outreach to the neighborhood before moving forward with Blair Hills Park; the need for more staff; the letter from the Commission to the City Manager last year; agreement by Commissioner Stuart to draft the letter for this year; funding for Lindbergh Park; corporate outreach; untapped financial resources; changing neighborhoods; concern with getting people's hopes up; concern with other neighborhoods feeling slighted; creating an unfunded wish list; waiting until projects are tentatively funded; concern with outreach and deadlines once a project is funded; concern with discussing projects prematurely; the number of projects already in process; and Culver City fees vs. fees of other comparable cities in the area.

Commissioner Stuart confirmed items to be contained in the letter to the City Council including, but not limited to: a grant writer; new lights at Veterans Park; Culver West Playground resurfacing; and support for the Blair Hills neighborhood Park, and staffing recommendations.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding how a development agenda is created for individual parks; the Master Plan and the Open Space Plan; the Syd Kronenthal Park playground; the changing neighborhood; changes in the design of play structures; hiring a part time counselor for the Senior Center; and adding resurfacing the asphalt basketball courts at Vets and Culver West to the wish list.

MOVED BY VICE CHAIR HEINEMAN AND SECONDED BY COMMISSIONER STUART THAT THE PARKS, RECREATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMISSION SUPPORT THE RECOMMENDATIONS OUTLINED BY COMMISSIONER STUART TO BE INCLUDED IN CORRESPONDENCE PROVIDED TO THE CITY COUNCIL AND CITY MANAGER REGARDING THE FISCAL YEAR 2016-2017 PRCS DEPARTMENT BUDGET.

THE MOTION CARRIED BY THE FOLLOWING VOTE:

AYES: HEINEMAN, RICKARDS, STUART, ZEIDMAN
NOES: NONE
ABSENT: GARLAND
