Sandy Brice

WHEREAS, the Culver City Downtown Business Association, after several years of steady management by its Board of Directors, determined to hire a person who could dedicate additional time to the management of the Association as the Association expanded and prospered; and

WHEREAS, the Board appointed Sandy Brice over three years ago as the Association’s first Executive Director; and,

WHEREAS, although the position of Executive Director was meant to be part-time, Ms. Brice always dedicated herself full-time to the mission of promoting and improving the effectiveness of the Association ; and

WHEREAS, some of the many recent accomplishments of the Association, such as the annual Car Show and the Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony, are a direct result of her steadfast efforts to improve the marketing, promotions, and special events of the Association and its downtown business members; and

WHEREAS, her dedication to the Downtown Business Association and its members was so strong that she selflessly converted portions of her Culver City home into her unofficial office until the recent finding of formal office space in the downtown area; and,

WHEREAS, as a direct result of Ms. Brice’s positive personality, strong work ethic, and business-supportive attitude, Ms. Brice’s tenure as Executive director has been highlighted by increased cooperation between and among the downtown businesses, City Hall, and surrounding business organizations.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of the City of Culver City, California commends Sandy Brice for her dedicated and tireless service to the Downtown Business Association and its members and sincerely thanks her for helping make Culver City’s Downtown a desirable destination for the businesses’ patrons.
