

Culver City

ADA Self-Evaluation and Transition Plan

Notification of Preparation of Culver City Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Self- Evaluation and Transition Plan

The City is seeking input from agencies, organizations, and individuals with disabilities to help the City enhance accessibility to its facilities, programs, services and events.

The City of Culver City is in the process of preparing its ADA Self-Evaluation and Transition Plan which is required by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Title II (28 CFR §35.105(a)). Your input will assist the City in improving its ability to serve the needs of people with disabilities and their families.

WHO: Residents, Employees, Visitors, Contractors, Participants of a Culver City Program, Service or Activity

WHAT: Complete a survey to help identify areas where the City could improve ADA access.

WHERE: The online survey can be found here:
<http://www.culvercity.org/Home/Components/News/News/238/722>

WHEN: The Self-Evaluation and Transition Plan is now underway. Your participation is appreciated

WHY: To have the public assist the City in identifying areas where the City could improve ADA access.

More Info: To print the survey, please visit the Culver City Website at <http://www.culvercity.org/Home/Components/News/News/238/722>. Once printed you can email or mail it to Christopher Evans, Project Manager. For questions about the Self-Evaluation & Transition Plan, please contact Christopher Evans at christopher.evans@culvercity.org or 310-253-5621. To contact the Culver City ADA Coordinator, Serena Wright-Black, please call: 310-253-5640.