

Culver CITY
Parks, Recreation &
Community Services

TEEN INCENTIVE PROGRAM

By Michelle Lee, Recreation and Community Services Supervisor

April 2, 2024

WHAT IS THE UCLA CAPSTONE PROJECT?

GOALS OF PROGRAM

- Listening and oral communication
- Oral Leadership
- Personal Management
- Competence in reading and math
- Development
- Organizational Leadership

Ucla

WHAT IS THE UCLA CAPSTONE PROJECT?

- Students produce deliverables that contribute to their capstone project.
- Students gain skills to use in future interviews.
- Sienna James worked with staff to develop the Teen Incentive Program.

TEEN INCENTIVE PROGRAM

-  Foster civic engagement opportunities for teens.
-  Application required to be part of the program.
-  Average 15-20 teens.
-  Monthly Meetings

TEEN INCENTIVE PROGRAM

Service –learning opportunities like:

- Making Valentines for seniors
- Assisting with preparation for kid camp.

Parks Make Life Better!

WELCOME SIENNA

- Junior at UCLA majoring in Sociology and Public Affairs.
- Volunteering with the Culver City Teen Center for the Public Affairs Capstone Project.
- Developed a community engagement program for Culver City teens.
- Intern for Dodgers Foundation.

Ucla

Thanks!

TEEN INCENTIVE PROGRAM

PRCS Supervisor Michelle Lee is available for questions!

