Project Justification and Community Benefits

The current Culver City Historical Preservation municipal code (Chapter 15.05) is long overdue for updates to align with current historic preservation best practices. Additionally, the Culver City General Plan outlines several long-term Cultural Resource goals outlined in Element 10, section C-1 including C-1.1 - C-1.22 which include various conservation initiatives to protect and enhance cultural resources within Culver City. Future Historic Preservation work to survey properties would need to be drawn from General Fund or alternative fundraising or fund allocations considered once the municipal code is updated.

Public Art for Washington National TOD Gateway (Charles Gaines)

Overview

Project Type	Other Capital Projects
Project Number	PO005

Description

The plan includes a collaborative art feature that will serve as a gateway and a means of visually unifying the four corners of the Washington/National intersection. On February 22, 2016, the City Council approved a streetscape plan for the Washington/National Transit Oriented Development (TOD) District. Phase I - Art Plan and Artist Selection - began with an RFP for an Art Consultant in 2018, and a lengthy process that resulted in the selection of Charles Gaines Studios and a concept for an artwork titled, A Frame for a Tree. The proposal, approved by City Council in 2022, includes a rectangular metal structure that will frame the mature ficus tree at the site. Phase II - Design Development and Construction Documentation is continuing. Phase III - Fabrication and Installation - scheduled to begin in FY 2025-2026.
