

Cultural Affairs Commission

The Cultural Affairs Commission shall have the following powers and duties:

- A. Act in an advisory capacity to the City Council on matters pertaining to the enrichment of the community through fine arts, visual arts, performing arts, arts education, historic preservation and cultural issues;
- B. Serve as an advocate for cultural activities and programs within the City;
- C. Serve as an advocate for equity, diversity and inclusion in cultural activities and programs within the City;
- D. Implement the City's Public Art Program, and encourage the integration of cultural affairs into the social and economic fabric of the City to improve the quality of life for City residents; and
- E. Perform such other duties, not inconsistent with the City Charter or this Code, as maybe prescribed by ordinance, resolution, City Council policy or other City Council action.

Commissioners shall be residents of the City who are lawfully registered voters of the City, none of whom shall hold any paid office or employment in the City Government. Applicants for appointment to any Commission seat must have been lawfully registered voters of the City for the thirty (30) days immediately preceding the filing of their application. No person may serve on more than one (1) Commission at the same time. Compensation of Commissioners, if any, may be established by resolution of the City Council.

In accordance with Municipal Code § 3.03.005 individuals may not serve on more than one (1) Commission at the same time. Commissioners are currently compensated $599.00 annually, on a quarterly basis, for service on the commission, regardless of the number of meetings attended. Culver City Council Members are precluded from sitting on a commission while holding elected office.