Recognition Presentation

Item R-2
(Out of Sequence)

CC - Presentation of a Proclamation Designating June 2024 as Gun Violence Awareness Month

Vice Mayor O'Brien presented a Proclamation designating June 2024 as Gun Violence Awareness Month.

Megan Oddsen-Goodwin expressed appreciation for the proclamation and the commitment of Culver City to raising awareness around gun violence; discussed additional work to be done; the presentation on gun safety and Gun Violence Restraining Orders (GVRs) to be made by Culver City Police Department (CCPD) Chief Jason Sims; updated resources on the Culver City webpage; being an example for the region; other cities that have adopted new regulations that were first adopted in Culver City; and she accepted the proclamation on behalf of Lori Escalera on the 40th anniversary of the death her brother who died by gun suicide in front of the gun store on Washington Boulevard after buying a high powered rifle without a background check.

Lori Escalera expressed appreciation for the opportunity to remember her brother; she described the details of the suicide; discussed statistics that are continually disregarded; the importance of removing the gun store; increased gun violence and suicides; statistics indicating that states with the most restrictions have less gun violence and fewer dead children; her brother's experience with mental illness that could have resulted in his turning the gun toward others rather than on himself; educating leaders to ensure that the bipartisan Safe Communities Act S.2938 is implemented; she asked everyone to hold their civic and state leaders accountable by demanding the agenda as a requirement of their electability; she noted that every action that is supported saves lives; wondered how different her life could have been and how many lives could have been spared if the gun store had not been in Culver City; and she expressed appreciation for the commitment of Culver City.

Mayor McMorris thanked members of Culver 878 for the presentation and for lifting up the memory of Lori Escalera's brother.

Item R-3
(Out of Sequence)

CC - Recognition of Bridgid Coulter Cheadle and the Blackbird Collective on its 5th Anniversary as a Culver City Business

Mayor McMorris presented the Recognition to Bridgid Coulter Cheadle and the Blackbird Collective on its 5th anniversary as a Culver City business.

Bridgid Coulter Cheadle expressed appreciation for the recognition; discussed the choice to locate in Culver City, noting the focus on Women of Color and openness to allies and anyone who wanted to make the world a better place.

o0o

Item R-1

CC - Presentation of the 2024 Third Annual Innovation and Performance Awards, Created by the Finance Advisory Committee, to Recognize Nine Culver City Staff Members for their Fiscal Year 2023-2024 Projects that Make Life Better in Culver City

Johnnie Griffing, Finance Advisory Committee (FAC) Member, expressed appreciation to Chief Finance Officer Lisa Soghor and Finance Department staff for their assistance, and he discussed the subcommittee for the Third Annual Innovation and Performance Awards.

Andrew Lachman, FAC Chair, expressed appreciation to the team that put the awards together, to municipal staff for their efforts, and to the City Council for their support; discussed increased numbers of applicants; and the intent of the awards to show appreciation for the work of staff to save Culver City money, to reduce environment impacts, and to provide an honorable mention.

Member Griffing presented the Innovation Award to Yanni Demitri, Sean Singletary, Jess McGregor, and Hong Wang for their work on the Mesmer Low Flow Diversion Storm Water Project; the Efficiency Award for the Public Works On-Call Staff Requisition to Yanni Demitri and Thomas Check; the Sustainability Award for Sanitation Bin Welding to Yanni Demitri and Moises Aldana; and the Best Innovation Award for the Go Pass Program Passport to Diana Chang and Dia Turner.

Honorees received their gift cards and were photographed with Council Members.

Joint Public Comment - Items NOT on the Agenda

Mayor McMorris invited public comment.

T'Ana Allen, Deputy City Clerk, read the City Council statement regarding hate speech.

The following members of the public addressed the City Council:

Michael Berns, California Greenworks, discussed the infrastructure project being pursued with the Measure W Safe Clean Water Program on the Los Angeles side of Ballona Creek; requested participation from Culver City to complement initiatives; discussed opportunities for direct participation on the northern side of the west Adams Channel; support from the Baldwin Hills Urban Watershed Conservancy; he welcomed input from Culver City; and he indicated that they were seeking a letter of support from Culver City.

Discussion ensued between staff and Council Members regarding the process to provide a letter of support; the timeline; and participation of the Public Works Director.

Ron Bassilian with one minute ceded by Dennis Page, discussed ballot measures; signature gathering; paid signatures; validity rates; number of hours to get an item on the ballot; meticulous, transparent validation; the staff report for the Safe Overland Project; the importance of providing the public with an understanding of what changes would be made; concern with lane closures; use of the Safer Overland Project as an election issue; the need for data; and he asked that the City Council direct staff to provide a better presentation of before and after conditions.

Melissa Sanders thanked Chief Sims for the presentation; discussed illegally gathered signatures for Vote 16; CCUSD events that may trigger protests; the need to alert CCPD when a potentially controversial event is taking place; police officers concerned with public safety; the importance of communication; and allowing CCPD to do their job.

Mimi Mirvish provided background on Vote 16; discussed Measure VY in 2022; continued work to gather signatures with the assistance of adults; community support; work to get on the ballot for the November 2024 election to allow 16 and 17 year olds to vote on Culver City School Board elections; direct effects to students by decisions made by the School Board; and she asked the City Council to agendaize the matter for consideration at a future meeting.

Julia Rottenberg, Vote 16, provided background on herself and on the issue; discussed the loss of the 2022 Measure by 16 votes; number of people who have signed the petition to put the measure on the 2024 ballot; and she requested City Council support to agendize adoption of a resolution to place a measure on the general election ballot amending the Culver City Charter to allow 16 and 17 year olds to vote on Culver City School Board elections.

Salem Alem discussed addressing the homeless issue by focusing on the unsafe discharge plan by hospitals; accountability; conservatorship; securing psychiatrists after release; HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act); HUD; debt and emotional toll incurred with the mistake of Culver City to not allow her daughter to be added to the housing voucher; the inability to fix the homelessness crisis without listening to the people involved; she asked the City Council to read Stuck, a report from Disability Rights California; reported lack of contact with the MCT due to having to move out of Culver City; and, responding to an offer to be connected with services from LAHSA, she discussed their corruption.

Mayor McMorris encouraged Ms. Alem to reach out to her if she needed assistance.

Item A-5

CC - Discussion and Direction Regarding Providing Childcare at City Council, Commission, Board, and Committee Meetings

Jesse Mays, Assistant City Manager, provided a summary of the material of record

Mayor McMorris invited public comment.

T'Ana Allen, City Clerk Specialist, indicated no requests to speak.

Discussion ensued between staff and Council Members regarding the previous offer of childcare for specific events; lack of consensus for the Committee on Women and Girls which would have been a good place to consider the issue; ensuring that barriers to participation in Culver City processes are removed; supporting community engagement; outreach opportunities; offering to provide the service upon request; difficulty of tracking the need without offering it for a trial period; the previous practice of offering child care on an as-needed basis; staffing challenges; the option to participate online; offering childcare for special occasions; support for increased participation; providing sufficient notice to ensure that staffing is available; the value of attending meetings in person; ensuring that anyone providing caregiving can access care and support; eliminating infrastructure barriers; being clear about stipulations related to providing the service; identification of particular meetings or outreaches that could need support; clarification that all CBCs are open to online public participation; subcommittees that are not hybrid; cities that have a minimum number of children required before providing childcare; ensuring that the caregivers are participating in the meeting rather than just taking advantage of free babysitting; the requirement for two staff persons that allows for up to 20 children to participate; the need to strategically promote the service to raise awareness; length of the pilot program; deferring to staff availability; costs; sensitivity to staff capacity and time; being strategic about planning; clarification that childcare is for children over the age of 5 who are potty trained; the Education Subcommittee; and a suggestion to amplify the message in the Culver Connect Newsletter.

Denise Neal reported on her experience bringing her child to work at a municipality as there was no childcare available; she indicated that she would have appreciated support; proposed the use of early childhood education students; and use of people who are bilingual to communicate with the children and parents.

Mayor McMorris indicated that the Equity and Human Relations Advisory Committee was evaluating the need for interpreters.
