

PROCLAMATION
FIRE PREVENTION WEEK
OCTOBER 9-15, 2005

WHEREAS, the week of October 9-15, 2005 is designated as Fire Prevention Week throughout the United States to remind all citizens of fire and safety hazards; and

WHEREAS, safety precautions and preventative measures including working smoke alarms on every level of a home, a fire escape plan and regular fire drills are essential for every household and are important to citizens and to local firefighters who risk their lives with every response to fire; and

WHEREAS, Culver City is joining the National Fire Protection Agency (NFPA) and public safety efforts of fire departments, schools, and other safety advocates in teaching lifesaving messages through this year’s theme of “Use Candles with Care,” as an important reminder for all citizens of Culver City; and

WHEREAS, the Culver City Fire Department will participate in community events including the Farmer’s Market on Tuesday, October 11th from 3-7 p.m. to reinforce this year’s message and calls upon the people of Culver City to heed the advice to treat any open flame with respect whether using candles for romantic dinners, atmosphere or celebrations.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of the City of Culver City, California hereby proclaims the week of October 9-15, 2005, as “Fire Prevention Week” and urges all residents to participate in the programs of the Fire Department in its endeavor to acquaint the public in fire preventative measures. We encourage residents to follow this year’s message “Use Candles with Care” ,be proactive in preventing fires and be equipped with the knowledge to protect themselves if a fire strikes, so that they may be spared unnecessary loss of life or property by fire.
