Item A-5

MLKJCC - Receipt and File the Update from the Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration and Juneteenth Celebration Ad Hoc Subcommittees

Chair Bibbins-McKeever reported that the PR, Marketing and Entertainment Ad Hoc Subcommittee had met to provide recommendations on artists, DJs and other entertainment for the event; noted that information had been provided to Edgar Varela; discussed the intent to bring back the idea of having local artists do a mural during the event and donate it; use of the artist, Mike Norris; creating a story-telling or songwriting pop-up; providing a space at the event for creatives; and learning from people in the space.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding spoken word; the Teen Center; the former Mayme A. Clayton Museum; finding a place to house the piece that is being created; the Nature Center; the process for donating artwork; the temporary display of the live mural done on 2023; lack of space to permanently store artwork; involvement of the Cultural Affairs Commission; allowing the artist to keep the piece; creating imagery to reuse for Juneteenth 2027; a request to have staff and the subcommittee research where artwork could be kept in Culver City; acquisitions as part of a permanent collection; identification of the artist for the Black National Anthem; PR and marketing; updating the listserv; email blasts; calendaring a date to email flyers; ensuring there are enough email blasts to remind people; looking at how more people can be signed up; Eventbrite; having media cover the event; and agendizing a future marketing discussion.

Member Weiss reported on the recent meeting of the History and Education for Martin Luther King Jr. & Juneteenth Ad Hoc Subcommittee; discussed possible activities; potential reuse of the voting display used for the MLK Celebration; the November initiative; providing a reading area with Juneteenth books and coloring books; highlighting Black American women who made important contributions and are not household names but should be; and having an in memoriam section using the big screen.

Vice Chair Hearn discussed sharing the history and significance of the holiday on the main stage; having a dedicated story-time area for children; inviting the City Clerk to have a table and speak on voting; providing handouts; helping people understand needed identification and how to access it; and eliminating barriers for those who want to vote.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding communication with the Middle School and High School principals; willingness of Opal Lee to participate via Zoom; technological abilities; observing a moment of silence for the in-memoriam section; determining who is included in the in memoriam section; further consideration by the subcommittee; and openness of all subcommittee to suggestions.

No reports were available from the 2026 Summer Olympics Preparation Ad Hoc Subcommittee, the Budget Letter to City Council Ad Hoc Subcommittee, Sponsorship/Donation for MLK & Juneteenth Ad Hoc Subcommittee, Student Engagement for MLK and Juneteenth Ad Hoc Subcommittee, and Volunteer Engagement for MLK and Juneteenth Ad Hoc Subcommittees.

Edgar Varela, Special Events Manager, reported on the recent meeting of the Food and Non-Food Vendor for MLK & Juneteenth Ad Hoc Subcommittee noting consideration of local Black-owned vendors.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding food trucks; speed of food distribution; working through the process of who is eligible for food; ensuring that food goes to people who are participating in the event; pre-determined portions; for sale food vs. what is being given away; the BBQ pit aesthetic; ensuring the food is spread out; allowing people to bring food to the event; creating a family-reunion atmosphere; having a voter registration booth; other vendors; lawn games; utilizing the entire space; encouraging people to bring their own chairs and blankets; having ice cream; and subcommittee recommendations.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding student engagement; attempts to reduce the voting age; getting more young people involved in the voting process; free merchandise to pass out; the feeling that if one can get a gun one should be able to vote; communication with school principals; sending a Save the Date to the District; whether schools have to be located in Culver City; clarification on what constitutes a discussion; updates vs. discussions; a request to agendaize discussions of what subcommittees are doing; the desire for more input into subcommittees; and a suggestion that rather than having subcommittees, items be placed on the agenda for full Committee discussion.

MOVED BY CHAIR BIBBINS-MCKEEVER, SECONDED BY MEMBER RAYNOR AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. CELEBRATION AND JUNETEENTH CELEBRATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE: RECEIVE AND FILE THE UPDATE FROM THE MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. CELEBRATION AND JUNETEENTH CELEBRATION AD HOC SUBCOMMITTEES.
