Council Member Clarke commended the Culver City Sister City Committee on their Cultural Day at Veterans Auditorium on June 11 and he reported on Taste of the Nation at Media Park also on June 11.

Council Member Sahli-Wells reported participating in the Habitat for Humanity Build in Culver City over the weekend; she discussed volunteers building 10 affordable homes in the City; reported more opportunities to volunteer time to help build affordable homes for ownership; noted that City employees and families with students in Culver City schools would be living in the homes; stated that these were the first affordable homes for ownership being built in the history of the City; she noted the length of the project; and she thanked staff for seeing the project through.

Council Member Small reported an upcoming Transit Oriented Development (TOD) Workshop on June 15 at Veterans Auditorium, discussed progress and encouraged participation; and he reported attending a Housing and Economic Development Committee meeting of the League of California Cities representing the Asian Pacific Islanders Caucus regarding partnerships with the state for affordable housing and invigorating the economy.

Kim Braun, Environmental Programs and Operations Manager, provided an update on the polystyrene campaign, and presented the outreach video and brochures to be distributed to relevant businesses in the City.

Council Member Sahli-Wells received clarification regarding outreach to business partners.

Joint Public Comment - Items Not on the Agenda

Mayor Cooper invited public comment.

The following members of the audience addressed the City Council:

Kevin Ja-David Cade asked to receive copies of claims that he had submitted; expressed concern with specific staff members; wanted to see his daughter; requested a transcript of his police interview; wanted to have his claims heard; asked for a public apology to clear his family name; felt his housing had been taken away from him; and he wanted to see the City held accountable.

Laura Frakes, Julian Dixon Library, announced a blood drive on June 16; a performance by We Tell Stories on June 21; and a Friends of the Library Centennial celebration event on June 24.

David Voncannon, Planning Commission Chair, reported recently taking the Metropolitan West Basin Water District tour of the Colorado River Aqueduct to educate public officials about the water system, and he encouraged everyone to take the trip.

Marci Baun distributed the schedule for The Plunge on the City website noting that nothing is listed after June 12; she discussed her usage of the pool and its importance in helping her rehab from an injury; and she asserted that the pool is being under-utilized for classes and should be made more available for lap swimmers.

Clay Evans noted the importance of communication; expressed concern with shutting down the pool; and he asked the City Council to look into the situation.

Marcus Tiggs encouraged submission of ideas for the Centennial Time Capsule; announced Fiesta La Ballona from August 25-27; thanked sponsors; and he noted the need for additional sponsors and volunteers.

Jim Shanman, Safe Routes to School Coordinator, thanked the City for their support; reported on improvements made; and invited everyone to upcoming events.

Kim Meyer discussed issues at The Plunge; email sent to Council Members and appreciation for the response from Council Member Sahli-Wells; she expressed concern with the non-substantive response from Dan Hernandez and the exclusion of adult lap swimmers from 9:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. for the entire summer; discussed use of the pool by seniors; expressed disappointment with the exclusion of a large portion of the community; wanted to see a revised schedule; and she provided a schedule that could accommodate everyone.

Dr. Janet Hoult congratulated Mayor Cooper and former Mayor Clarke for joining the Mayors National Climate Action Agenda to uphold the Paris Climate Accord; reported attending the Sister City Centennial Celebration at Veterans Auditorium on June 11; and she congratulated the City on the diverse population.

Kay Heineman recommended finding a balance between the adults and children in recreation throughout the City; she noted that with the children being out of school and camps being full, it is important to think about the safety of the children and to find a balance; and she suggested that individuals bring their concerns to the Parks, Recreation and Community Services Commission for help.

Mitchell Keiter, Westwood Neighborhood Council and Westside Regional Alliance of Councils, discussed his involvement with the Westwood Pool and The Plunge; noted the importance of providing the opportunity for children to swim; and he felt that accommodating everyone is important and possible.

Jamie Hall, Channel Law Group, representing Arts District Residents for Responsible Development, discussed a letter submitted on May 10, 2017 in response to the proposed MND, reported speaking at the Planning Commission Public Hearing; formally withdrew the objection including the CEQA comment letter; he expressed support for the project; and appreciation for the City response to concerns raised and willingness to work with the community.

Bill Feldman expressed support for the project.

Ken Mand expressed support for the project; thanked the developer and contractor for working to address concerns and minimize construction impacts; supported amending Condition 35D to allow the contractor to start their delivery, hauling and concrete activities beginning at 7:00 a.m. weekdays resulting in a shortened construction period; and he noted that the developers had offered to temporarily restripe the left turn lane at Washington and Wesley to allow better access.

Elaine Behnken, Culver City Education Foundation Board, expressed support for the project.

Jody Reichel, Culver City Education Foundation Board, expressed support for the project, excitement at the addition of HBO to the Culver City community, and she hoped that Surf as would remain at the same location.

Jeremy Green, City Clerk, read written comments submitted by:

Seth Horowitz
Marcus Tiggs

MOVED BY COUNCIL MEMBER ERIKSSON, SECONDED BY COUNCIL MEMBER CLARKE AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE CITY COUNCIL CLOSE THE PUBLIC HEARING.

Council Member Sahli-Wells observed wide support for the project; expressed appreciation for efforts to recognize the TOD district and make the location meaningful for the flagship building and firm; interest in ensuring that people take the Metro and reducing traffic; she discussed future visioning; the pilot program for an automated, on-demand shuttle connecting the TOD to downtown Culver City and areas along Jefferson; the study by the Transportation department; the need for seed money to start a pilot project; and she requested support for the pilot study.

Rob Kane, Lincoln Property Company, noted their goal to create a successful Transportation Demand Management program and indicated willingness to contribute to that end.

Discussion ensued between staff and Council Members regarding applicant concerns with specific conditions; Condition 35D; limitations to ground floor retail use; Condition 26; popup uses; art exhibits; alternative wording to indicate other uses as permitted by the City; special permits; cleanup language; and the different scenario for construction trucks.

Glenn Whitehead, HBO, indicated the average number of employees and visitors on site daily and hours present.

Further discussion ensued between project representatives, staff and Council Members regarding clarification on changes to Conditions: clarifying in Condition 32 that bi-weekly meant twice monthly; Condition 35C allowing earlier construction activity in order to reduce the duration of construction; Condition 98 regarding Car Share programming; staff agreement with Condition 152; finding dedicated space for Car Share; deliveries; the drop off area; the refuse truck zone; differing hours for delivery and Ride Share; multi-modal opportunities; defining the time period for refuse pickup; coordination; factors that determine the refuse pickup schedule; multiple bins to be collected; length of time that the trash container would be in front of the restaurant; working through the precise details of trash pickup closer to occupancy; a suggestion that the Condition allow Public Works approval of the details once the time gets closer; and allowing for trash pickups and people pickups at staggered times.

Council Member Eriksson expressed appreciation for the project and to Ken Mand and his group, and he moved to adopt the ordinance.

Additional discussion ensued between the applicant, staff and Council Members regarding adding mobility into the lookback in Condition 172; leasing out excess parking to other businesses in the area in the future; ensuring a cap to commitments being made; gathering data; the lookback; certainty with economic commitments; long-term commitments to HBO regarding parking use; changing technology; ensuring that the City code reflects flexibility; development of TOD rules and regulations; the entitlement; modifications; success in reducing car trips; providing the ability to lease parking; using the space in an innovative way; and adjustments to wording to reflect changes discussed.

Item A-4

CC - Consideration of the Expo to Downtown Bicycle Connector Feasibility Study and Direction Staff to Take Specific Actions to Further the Development of this Concept and Advance the Project to the Environmental and Engineering Phases

Eric Bruins, Bicycle and Pedestrian Coordinator, provided a summary of the material of record.

Discussion ensued between staff and Council Members regarding clarification on timing of the environmental analysis; current volume data; locker use at Metro; the waiting list; bike racks on Metro property; demand; the need for more bike parking at the Metro station; and the geographic boundary on the west side.

Mayor Cooper invited public input.

The following members of the audience addressed the City Council:

Jim Shanman, Safe Routes to School Coordinator, noted that as the City grows it is essential to create safer routes and connectivity; he discussed Vision Zero; increased usage with protected bike lanes; helping people make the transition to riding bikes; and he expressed support for the item.

Ken Mand indicated that he supported the protected bike lane in concept but felt that further analysis was needed to determine the exact location of the path on Washington; he reported support of locating the protected bike lane on the south side of Washington from Joey Miller; he felt that cost should not be a factor moving forward; and he urged location of the protected bike lane on the south side of Washington.

Andrew Leist, Bicycle and Pedestrian Advisory Committee, described their deliberation of the matter and approval of the plan with the direction to evaluate impacts on the stakeholders between Ince and Robertson, and he asserted that the project was an important step in accomplishing goals of the Bicycle and Pedestrian Master Plan.

Daniel Lee expressed support for moving the project forward; discussed traffic in the area; construction projects; he reported support of the item from Seth Horowitz of the Culver Hotel from a business perspective; and he observed that when business concerns and environmental concerns overlap that is a great indicator from the community to move forward.

Michelle Weiner cited a study indicating that protected bike lanes generate business; discussed savings in health costs; increased real estate values in accessible areas; and she suggested creating transportation for the 21st century and supporting businesses.

Alex Fisch expressed support for the item; discussed the feasibility study; increased safety; closing the regional gap between downtown Los Angeles and the beach; promoting mobility; the economic component; promoting health and sustainability; access; positive affects to downtown businesses; he noted the request for additional analysis; expressed support for a direct route; he pointed out that bicycles put a lot less wear and tear on the roads; and he asserted that bicycles promote community.

Christina Batteate reported being a bicycle commuter to UCLA; expressed support for the project; discussed the many benefits of promoting bicycle use in the City; and she reported positive feedback from residents who are excited use the bike lanes.

Jeremy Green, City Clerk, read written comments submitted by:

Steve Rose

Discussion ensued between staff and Council Members regarding clarification that this is the first time the City Council has seen the plan; concern that some alternatives in the report are being dismissed; clarification regarding jurisdiction over the area near Century Park; creating a Lindblade alternative; consideration of reverse lanes for commuting; creating a no-auto zone in the downtown area; extending the Ballona Creek bike path; other uses for the money to be spent; clarification that the project was started before the TOD Visioning Study; more aggressive options being considered; concern with being locked in to a very narrow set of options; and proceeding with an RFP for the entire scope of work outlining steps to be done with a bail out option.

Further discussion ensued between staff, Council Members and Mr. Leist regarding BPAC consideration of aggressive ideas; concern with taking away travel lanes; traffic issues; the charge of the BPAC; assurances of cooperation from the BPAC; and Brown Act issues.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Council Members regarding mobility; the Visioning Study; the charge to study a bicycle facility between the Expo and downtown; clarification that a complete mobility study was not the task at hand; the mobility element of the General Plan; City investment; clarification that grant funding is project driven; Ballona Creek; the Bicycle and Pedestrian Action Plan; the bridge project; enhancing connections; jurisdiction issues with Venice; the detour around Lindblade; expenses related to property acquisition; location of the bicycle facility; other places to lock up bicycles; the Robertson extension; adding flexibility and providing alternatives; the importance of the first and last mile connection to the most popular transit line in Los Angeles County; taking the lead rather than having Los Angeles do it; attracting business to Culver City rather than having people go to Los Angeles; the amount of outreach done for the project; evolution of the project from stakeholder input; distribution of the proposed study; a feeling that the project brings together different City programs and is a key piece to mobility; length of time the project has been in process; the limited amount of right of way available; meeting goals of making bicycle travel safe; encouraging transportation within sustainability goals; alleviating traffic and not eliminating travel lanes; moving forward with Bike Share; how the facility supports City goals; community support for the project; being grant ready; competition for funding; support for protected bike lanes; the limited real estate that the City can control; other usage of the space; other potential bike tracks; school connections; opening up access points along Ballona Creek; competing opportunities; bus ridership; using the shortest, fastest route; using Washington Boulevard whether or not it is the ideal route; moving the bike facility next to the main road; practices of other countries; linking bicycles with transportation systems; how to get the most protected bike lane miles; traffic flow on Washington; best use of money; other mitigations to make things work; concern with spending the money on this before the whole City is considered with regard to bike facilities and connections; adding another bike bridge over Ballona Creek; existing traffic counts; bicycle and pedestrian counts; the concentration of multiple origins and destinations in a small area; filling in the gaps in the regional network; providing a strong connectivity to the core of downtown; the keystone to build upon; communication with businesses; scheduling and incorporating TOD Visioning Study ideas as they relate to this project; coordination; clarification that the Visioning Study is building on the proposed plan as a foundation; difficult policy decisions; concerns with driveways and access; alternative ideas; the minimum level of tradeoffs; opening up additional policy ideas; the plan as the baseline under the policy status quo; providing additional options; acknowledgement that connections would be the same but could possibly be enhanced; waiting for the results of the TOD Visioning before moving ahead; acquiring the property near Century Park School; getting from Expo to the Hayden Tract; maximizing the benefit; reducing congestion; the Strategic Plan; other options that have not been considered; preservation of the option related to the right of way; and keeping options open.

Mayor Cooper moved items 1 and 2 of the staff recommendation.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Council Members regarding community outreach; ensuring that analysis coming out of the TOD Visioning Study is ready to coordinate with the BPAC analysis; the Robertson intersection; the Carney property; a suggestion to leave language broad; concern with language indicating "the recommended project"; right of way requirements; clarification that any development project would have to appear before the City Council; an observation that in order to ask for a dedication there would have to be a plan in place; and the need for a connection to something tangible.

MOVED BY VICE MAYOR SMALL, SECONDED BY COUNCIL MEMBER CLARKE AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE CITY COUNCIL:

1. RECEIVE AND FILE THE EXPO TO DOWNTOWN BICYCLE CONNECTOR FEASIBILITY STUDY; AND
2. DIRECT STAFF TO CONDITION ANY FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS WITH A REQUIREMENT TO DEDICATE THE RIGHT-OF-WAY NECESSARY TO CONSTRUCT THE PROJECT RECOMMENDED BY THE BICYCLE AND PEDESTRIAN ADVISORY COMMITTEE; AND
3. DIRECT STAFF TO RETURN TO THE CITY COUNCIL AT THE COMPLETION OF THE TOD VISIONING STUDY.
