Item A-7
(Out of Sequence)

[Standing Item; Any or All of the Following Actions, if Desired] (1) Receipt and Filing of Updates from the Members of the Parks, Recreation and Community Services Commission Ad Hoc Subcommittees and Representative Appointees to Outside Associations and City Committees; (2) Formation of New and/or Dissolution of Existing Ad Hoc Subcommittee(s); and, (3) Appointment of Two Commissioners to Newly-Formed Ad Hoc Subcommittee(s)

Commissioner Leonard discussed communication from community members and staff; creation of a survey distributed throughout the City and online; public outreach; signage; and next steps.

Vice Chair Zeidman thanked staff for their work and he was looking forward to receiving feedback from the community.

Chair Rickards invited public comment.

The following members of the public addressed the Committee:

John Coray asserted that parks make life better by being inclusive; indicated that he is part of the paddle tennis community; discussed accommodating both paddle tennis and pickleball and alterations to make the courts work for both sports; use of the courts on a first come, first served basis; he stated that if he wanted to make a reservation, he would join a club; and, responding to inquiry, he indicated that he had taken the survey.

Howie Jacobowitz indicated being a long-time paddle tennis player; advocated for the most efficient use of existing courts; discussed courts on the Middle School campus; purview of the Board of Education; signage; court sharing; the potential to serve more people by putting four pickleball courts on one tennis court; the upcoming election; and, responding to inquiry, he indicated that he had taken the survey.

Vice Chair Zeidman reported that neighboring cities were working with their school districts to make use of courts for pickleball.

Romy Hightower provided background on herself; indicated that she was an advocate for pickleball and paddle ball; she expressed support for making use of the tennis courts; she reported taking and sharing the survey; expressed appreciation for the actions of Manhattan Beach to open up the school courts for use to play pickleball; discussed the reservation system; antiquated signage that has caused issues; problems caused by misinformation; and she expressed appreciation to Commissioner Leonard for her support.

Discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding efforts to include the tennis community and the surrounding neighborhoods in the conversation; ways for the community to access the survey; a planned community mailing; confusion caused by signage; a suggestion to block off the "paddle tennis only" portion of the signage; creating a transparent process; allowing for input; appreciation to the public for their comments; and ensuring that the community does not feel that staff is favoring one point of view over another.

Commissioner Mohammed reported that he had not heard anything from the City Attorney about the Parks and Facilities Sections of the Culver City Municipal Code Review Ad Hoc Subcommittee.

Discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding the City Council request that the Commission consider forming a Community Gardens Subcommittee and a subcommittee to consider adding hours for dogs to be off leash in Culver City parks.

Commissioner Leonard discussed attending monthly meetings of the Culver City Senior Center Board of Directors.

Responding to inquiry, Armando Abrego, Parks, Recreation and Community Services Director, indicated that he would send an email to the City Attorney's Office in an attempt to get information to report back to the Parks and Facilities Sections of the Culver City Municipal Code Review Ad Hoc Subcommittee.

MOVED BY COMMISSIONER LEONARD AND SECONDED BY VICE CHAIR ZEIDMAN THAT THE PARKS, RECREATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMISSION RECEIVE AND FILE THE UPDATES FROM THE MEMBERS OF THE PARKS, RECREATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMISSION AD HOC SUBCOMMITTEES AND REPRESENTATIVES APPOINTED TO OUTSIDE ASSOCIATIONS AND CITY COMMITTEES.

Item A-6
(Out of Sequence)

(1) Consideration of Forming a PRCS Commission "Community Gardens Ad Hoc Subcommittee"; and (2) [If Desired] Appoint Two Members to the Newly-Formed Ad Hoc Subcommittee

Francisca Castillo, Recreation and Community Services Manager, provided a summary of the material of record.

Chair Rickards noted the need for the Commission to work with the community to create a sense of shared ownership and connection.

Chair Rickards invited public comment.

The following member of the public addressed the Commission:

Meg Sullivan expressed concern with the original site for the relocated garden; discussed loss of space for those who rely on Syd Kronenthal Park; she indicated having a community garden plot elsewhere; she was pleased that alternative sites would be considered; she wondered how the subcommittee would work with the public; she felt that the list of sites should be provided to the public who should be allowed to make suggestions; noted that the City had created a problem by indicating that the sites would be within a City park; she suggested use of potential sites at West Los Angeles Community College; she offered to take anyone to the community garden that she volunteers in; and she thanked the City for their work.

Discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding skepticism with the original offer by the Wende Museum; support for creation of a subcommittee; alternative locations; creative use of space for gardening; thinking outside of the parks; providing opportunities for community engagement; those willing to serve on the subcommittee; appreciation for the public comment; the opportunity to investigate different models of community gardens; exciting and opportunities for the City; people who want to grow their own vegetables but don't have their own space; engaging in an interactive process; getting out of the "mine" and "yours" model; looking at alternatives; availability to serve; different approaches to gardening in South Central Los Angeles; policies and concerns; security; consequences of assigning use factors; appreciation to the Commission for their work on the item; and opportunities for all community members to be engaged.

MOVED BY COMMISSIONER MOHAMMED AND SECONDED BY CHAIR RICKARDS THAT THE PARKS, RECREATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMISSION FORM A COMMUNITY GARDEN AD HOC SUBCOMMITTEE AND APPOINT CHAIR RICKARDS AND MEMBER LEONARD THERETO.
