RECOMMENDATION: Staff recommends the City Council (City Council) authorize the City Manager to prepare and execute a letter to Los Angeles Metropolitan Transit Authority (Metro) requesting that Metro rename the Venice/Robertson station as the Culver City Station. BACKGROUND/DISCUSSION: According to Metro staff it may be possible to rename the Venice/Robertson Station as the Culver City Station. To do so, staff recommends the City Council authorize the City Manager to prepare and execute a letter requesting such renaming. The letter would be presented to the Metro Board later this year. FISCAL ANALYSIS: The renaming of the station will not result in a cost to Culver City. If the station is renamed, it could have positive fiscal impacts for the City. MOTION: That the City Council: Authorize the City Manager to prepare and execute a letter to Metro requesting that the Venice/Robertson station be renamed the Culver City Station.
