

P R O C L A M A T I O N

VETERANS DAY

WHEREAS, November 11th was declared as Armistice Day in 1918 to observe the end of World War I and, in 1954, Congress established Veterans Day to be observed on the same day to honor all veterans of the Armed Forces; and

WHEREAS, citizens of Culver City have participated as uniformed service members in all conflicts involving our Armed Services from World War I through Operation Freedom; and

WHEREAS, citizens of Culver City also served as uniformed service members in our Armed Services during time of peace; and

WHEREAS, all veterans who have performed service during time of peace or conflict sacrificed a portion of their productive lives to the service of their country and contributed to our continued freedom and well-being; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Culver City owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to all the courageous men and women who willingly served their country and sacrificed their lives to preserve our ideals and the American way of life.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of the City of Culver City, hereby proclaims Friday, November 11, 2005, Veterans Day, as a day of remembrance by all Culver City residents, and recommends that we pause to honor and give thanks to those who have served, died or remain missing-in-action from past conflicts and continue to support all Americans serving in today’s Armed Forces.

Dated this 24th day of October, 2005.

	Albert Vera - Mayor
Gary Silbiger – Vice Mayor		Carol A. Gross - Councilmember
Alan Corlin – Councilmember		Steven J. Rose - Councilmember