Action Items

Item A-1

MLKJCC - Selection of the Master of Ceremony for the Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration

Chair Hearn introduced the item noting that she serves on the subcommittee; discussed the staff recommendation to hold a special meeting; division about the recommendation coming forth; and individuals up for consideration.

Member Bibbins-McKeever discussed the recommendation received from the person selected for the original date who was not available for the alternate date, and she provided background on Shynieka Taylor for consideration to serve as Master of Ceremony.

Francisca Castillo, Recreation and Community Services Manager, indicated that a bio had been provided to Committee Members for Teck Holmes; she discussed his experience; staff efforts to replace the original Master of Ceremony; consideration of recommendations; the process engaged in to come to the staff recommendation; questions that have come up in past events; and the qualified individuals proposed.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding differences between the two individuals being considered; items that were initially discovered by the ad hoc subcommittee; additional research; a tweet that staff found to be questionable; subcommittee vetting of Shynieka Taylor; providing notoriety that would bring people in; relevant credentials; the tweet that triggered a higher level discussion; additional research that uncovered additional items; the responsibility of staff to look out for the best interests of the City; representation of the Mayor and the City Manager; acknowledgement that staff will be over-cautious with representation at events; removal of the posts; vetting at the subcommittee level; subcommittee alignment for the best representation of Culver City; the recommendation from the initial Master of Ceremony; ensuring that Culver City is reflected in the best way possible; staff openness to what the Committee decides; due diligence; recent information for Ms. Taylor who is an influencer; lack of clarity as to what Mr. Holmes has done in the community; having a choice and being able to compare potential hosts; making a recommendation; a suggestion to give them both a chance by using one for each event; costs; bringing the brand and the energy needed for the MLK Celebration; keeping the focus on MLK; the feeling that celebrity is not necessary; people affected by the fires; and concern with having a showy event rather than having a day of service.

Ted Stevens, Parks, Recreation and Community Services Director, indicated that he was the one who had called for the special meeting; noted the importance of having the discussion in an open forum with a majority quorum of the Committee; discussed the work of staff on short notice to obtain the services of a very well qualified possibility for a host; the second person suggested; deleted social media; acceptance of the Committee decision; the goal of the special meeting; and appreciation that Committee Members and staff were able to attend with such short notice.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding the subcommittee recommendation; review of the posting flagged for concern; and assurances that the subcommittee had engaged in a vetting process.

MOVED BY MEMBER RAYNOR, SECONDED BY MEMBER WEISS AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED (ABSENT MEMBERS GORDON CAIN AND SMITH), THAT THE MLK JR. CELEBRATION AND JUNETEENTH CELEBRATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE CHOOSE SHYNIEKA TAYLOR TO BE MASTER OF CEREMONY FOR THE MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. EVENT.

Francisca Castillo, Recreation and Community Services Manager, indicated that staff would inform the candidates first thing tomorrow morning.

Ted Stevens, Parks, Recreation and Community Services Director, expressed gratitude to the Committee Members for coming out on short notice and engaging in due diligence.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding involvement of subcommittee members in discussions; the contract discussion; and letting subcommittee members know that the Master of Ceremony had been confirmed.
