Community Announcements By City Council Members/Information Items From Staff

Martin Cole, Assistant City Manager/City Clerk, reported that the application period for City Commissions, Committees and Boards opened on April 18, 2013 and additional information is available on the City website or by calling the City Clerk's Office.

Chief of Police Donald Pederson discussed the event at the EcoStation in honor of Earth Day; he thanked the City Council for their leadership in making the CicLAVia event happen and those who staffed the event; and he noted that CicLAVia was a large event and in light of the events in Boston, he encouraged anyone who hears or sees anything that concerns them to alert the police.

Councilmember O'Leary commended a vigilant employee at a local restaurant that recognized someone from a wanted photograph and alerted Culver City Police who were then able to apprehend the suspect.

MOVED BY COUNCILMEMBER O'LEARY, SECONDED BY COUNCILMEMBER CLARKE AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED THAT WHEN THIS MEETING IS ADJOURNED, THAT IT BE ADJOURNED IN MEMORY OF GERDA MELMAN, MOTHER OF JEFF MELMAN.

Councilmember Clarke wished everyone a Happy Earth Day; discussed local events; thanked those who worked to make Culver City a successful hub for CicLAVia; reported that he and Councilmember Sahli-Wells had taken a tour of the State Water Project; and he thanked the Sister City Committee noting that he would be participating in the Sister City exchange with Kaizuka, Japan.

Vice Mayor Cooper invited everyone to the 10th Annual Culver City Car Show and the 10th Annual Fire Department Pancake Breakfast, both on May 11th.

Councilmember Sahli-Wells announced a Community Advisory Panel meeting to comprehensively review the Community Standards District that regulates oil drilling for the Inglewood Oil Fields on April 25 at Kenneth Hahn Park; she discussed the success of CicLAVia; the annual PTA Awards for Culver City Unified School District; the Earth Day event at Linwood Howe

School; and The Green Five Initiative.

Councilmember O'Leary suggested that The Green Five song be posted on the City's website.

Joint Public Comment - Items Not on the Agenda

Mayor Weissman invited public comment.

The following members of the audience addressed the City Council:

Eric Sims, Downtown Business Association, discussed the success of CicLAVia, he thanked all those involved for helping to make the event go smoothly, and he noted that economic development was alive and well in Culver City.

Jose Munoz, Culver City Little League, distributed pictures to Councilmembers and expressed concern with safety and the lack of response by the City to alleviate the condition of the fields due to gopher issues.

Daniel Hernandez, Director of Parks, Recreation and Community Services, discussed work done by staff to address the issue and tentative agreements from discussions with Culver City Little League.

Discussion ensued between staff and Councilmembers regarding addressing the problem in the short term since the season is winding down.

Elena Sweda Neff discussed Earth Day; comments made by Mayor Bloomberg in New York City; the plastic bag ban; the need to adapt quickly; short term solutions vs. long-term consequences; fracking; the environmental review process; reusable bags; whether reusable bags have become the new disposable bags; and she encouraged the City to challenge the status quo.

Sandrine Cassidy Schmitt, Ballona Creek Renaissance, invited everyone to help clean up Ballona Creek at the Centinela Bridge on April 27.

Mary Beth Trautwein, Rediscover Center, reported that they work on Earth Day issues all year round and she discussed their use of trash for education purposes.

Councilmember Clarke encouraged anyone that had things to dispose of to donate them to the Rediscover Center.

Prisca Gloor expressed disappointment that the City Council had not endorsed four items on the gun-violence agenda last time; she provided statistics on gun violence; discussed various tragedies involving guns; the Second Amendment; background checks vs. the ban on assault weapons; the inability of the Federal government to act on the matter; the U.S. Military Industrial Complex; she felt that action at the local level was important; and she asked the City Council to do their part to act for the people.

Mayor Weissman reported that the City Council had taken a position against assault weapons and high capacity magazines and also to expand background checks.

Donna Kent, Downtown Neighborhood Association, expressed pride in the actions taken by the City to support the environment but she expressed concern regarding the lack of gun regulations; she wanted the City Council to be a model and felt the City Council held a lot of power to inspire other City Councils in the state and all over the Country; and she encouraged the City Council to stay true to the principals that 90% of the country wants better gun control.

Margot Bennett discussed actions by the City Council at the previous meeting and she discussed people killed and wounded during the past week.

Carlene Brown, Community Coalition to Prevent Gun Violence, expressed gratitude that Councilmember Clarke had met with them but disappointment that the Second Amendment took precedent over her First Amendment rights for free speech at the last City Council meeting; she reported doing research on the agenda item for the previous meeting; expressed concern that her written public comment was not read; discussed comments made by Councilmember Clarke regarding the position of the City Council; staff member approvals; she requested discussion of the Americans for Responsible Solutions measure; she discussed the staff report; and she asserted that the City Council did not take action by going along with the open letter from the nation's Mayors that Mayor Weissman had already signed.

Jazmine Guillen, Coalition for Smoke-Free Living in Culver City, reported that she had been responsible for tobacco education outreach for Culver City residents for the past three years; she discussed her survey of multi-unit residents; support for a law establishing a smoke-free policy; she discussed the dangers of second hand smoke; and she reported that UCLA had become 100% smoke free in honor of Earth Day.

Discussion ensued between staff and Councilmembers regarding consideration of the issue by the Sustainability Committee; when the item would be agendized; previous information provided to the City Council; material provided by the Coalition; agendizing the item vs. Sustainability Committee consideration; the City's grade from the American Lung Association; smoking in multi-unit housing; staff study; changes to ordinances; consideration by the City Attorney's Office; and City Council consensus that the Sustainability Committee meet to consider the item.

Sherman Kingsley, Coalition for Smoke-Free Living in Culver City, urged the City Council to take up the issue and move it through the subcommittee as soon as possible.

Trevor Young, Coalition for Smoke-Free Living in Culver City, discussed rules for the condo that he lives in; noted that the weather was changing and he wanted to open his windows but would not be able to due to second hand smoke; and he encouraged the City Council to take action.

Angela de Dios, Coalition for Smoke Free Living in Culver City, asked that the City Council please agendize the item and she discussed how her neighbor affects her enjoyment of her home.

Adam Lane, Coalition for Smoke Free Living in Culver City, discussed the changing weather and his inability to open up the windows as well as the effects of second hand smoke on his soon to be born baby.

Joshua Brindle, Coalition for Smoke Free Living in Culver City, reported that they had been working for some time to address the problem; he discussed affects to quality of life; and he read comments on behalf of a current resident unable to attend the meeting.

Stephen Murray, Baldwin Hills Oil Watch, discussed fracking, democracy, and rights; he presented a proposed amendment to ban fracking within the City and the vicinity; he provided information on how to get a copy of the amendment; and he reported that they planned to bring the amendment to the ballot for a vote of the people.

Doug Shields, former Pittsburgh (Pennsylvania) City Councilmember, provided background on himself; reported that Pittsburgh had enacted a Community Rights Ordinance banning the extraction by hydraulic fracturing of shale gas in 2010; he indicated that they were never sued and do not have fracking in their City; he discussed health, welfare and safety concerns; community assets responding to a corporate interest; he invited everyone to visit Pittsburgh; and he asked the City Council to consider a Community Rights Ordinance for Culver City.

Michelle Weiner asked the City Council to reagendize the issue of gun control; she discussed violence against women; she expressed concern regarding the possibility that agreements were made ahead of time; and concern with the Brown Act.

Elena Sweda Neff, Los Angeles West Vector Control District, reported the first West Nile Virus positive in Lomita; updates to the websites; and she noted that the City was picking up crows that have been dead for less than 24 hours.

Jeremy Green, Management Analyst, read a written comment submitted by:

Jacob Brown

Councilmember Clarke read a statement that he had written regarding gun violence prevention measures considered at the last City Council meeting; he discussed the historical reluctance of the City Council to take a position on legislation; the ad hoc legislation subcommittee; issues impacting the City; staff guidelines; letters of support or opposition; City Council intent; the issue of gun violence; adopting principals to guide staff when considering legislative proposals; time constraints preventing the City Council from considering each bill; principals adopted by the City Council at the April 8, 2013 City Council meeting; he expressed pride in the action of the City Council; and he asserted that The Brown Act had not been violated.

Councilmember Sahli-Wells reported that she had been disappointed at the outcome of the previous City Council meeting as they were not able to vote on what was specifically on the agenda; she indicated that she would be happy to reagendaize specific measures; she discussed the role of the City Council; and requests from the community.

Councilmember Sahli-Wells moved that the City Council reagendaize consideration of specific measures regarding gun control legislation. The motion died for lack of a second.

Councilmember Sahli-Wells discussed the Community Rights Ordinance recently passed in Santa Monica; she thanked Councilmember Shields of Pittsburg and active community members working on the item; and she wanted to make sure that the oil drilling subcommittee would be able to discuss that model at the next meeting.

Discussion ensued between staff and Councilmembers regarding staff efforts to move the item forward, and scheduling a meeting of the oil drilling subcommittee in the near future.
