Joint Public Comment - Items Not on the Agenda

Vice Mayor Cooper invited public comment.

The following members of the audience addressed the City Council:

Dan Hernandez, Parks, Recreation and Community Services Director, reported that the Culver City Municipal Plunge had made the Best of L.A. List as one of the Six Best Public Pools in Los Angeles.

Laura Boccaletti, Culver City Public Theatre, announced the 18th season of free public theatre in Carlson Park Saturdays and Sundays from July 16 - August 21 supported by the Culver City Performing Arts Grant and patrons.

Marcus Tiggs, Fiesta La Ballona Committee, invited everyone to Fiesta La Ballona from August 26-28; discussed the schedule; he noted there was still a little bit of room for more vendors; he thanked volunteers and sponsors; and read a list of participating sponsors.

Myrna Weber, Culver City Senior Citizens Association, reported securing a renewable grant from Wells Fargo for the Senior Center.

Paulette Greenberg reported distributing a copy of an email exchange between staff and Council Members before the March 14, 2016 meeting where a study was ordered to determine whether the intrusion level in the 10700 block of Farragut justified permit only parking restrictions; she noted that the email showed that the City Engineer and Traffic Engineer had warned that the study was designed to fail; she expressed concern with Council Member Weissman's motivations and actions; suppression of a discussion of the two-hour parking restrictions; the parking study; the code of silence by staff; whether staff had properly served the City Council or residents; wasted money on the parking study; the unfairness of the study; irrefutable evidence of malfeasance; and she questioned what the new City Council would do to remedy the situation.

Vice Mayor Cooper indicated that staff and Council Members had received her letter and were formulating a response.

Dr. Janet Hoult discussed taking the required ethics training course online; thanked the City Council for her reappointment to the Disability Advisory Committee; discussed her previous experience on the Landlord Tenant Mediation Board; the role of ethics in politics; the priority of serving the citizens of the City; and she read a poem about ethical behavior and Fair Political Practices.

Public Comment - Items Not on the Agenda

Vice Mayor Cooer invited public comment.

The following member of the audience addressed the City Council:

Dorsay Dujon, Make Music LA, discussed the event that took place on June 21, 2016, and asked that the City Council consider participating more fully in 2017; she observed resistance to free outdoor music in the City; discussed permitting issues; the actions of the City of Santa Monica and the City of Los Angeles; she questioned what could be done to help the process; the contribution of the City to the arts; and she asked for assistance.

Vice Mayor Cooper discussed the process; noted that there was plenty of art and culture in the City already; and he indicated that Ms. DeJeune could speak with staff for assistance.

Ms. Dujon discussed the concept of the event; she clarified that Make Music LA was not producing an event; and she confirmed that she had previously come before the Cultural Affairs Commission to discuss the item.
