WHEREAS, the global climate crisis is rapidly worsening, requiring bold and immediate action to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and mitigate its impacts; and

WHEREAS, the Plant Based Treaty is a global initiative aimed at reducing reliance on animal agriculture and promoting sustainable, plant-based food systems, serving as a companion to the Paris Climate Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the disproportionate land use required for animal agriculture contributes to deforestation, biodiversity loss, and environmental degradation, with 78% of farmland used for animal farming producing only 18% of global calories and 37% of its protein; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the City Council of the City of Culver City, California, DOES HEREBY RESOLVE, as follows:
