Public Comment – Items Not on the Agenda

Chairperson Wolfberg invited public participation.

There were two requests.

First request submitted by Steven Rose representing Culver City Chamber of Commerce, regarding Action Item A-6. Mr. Rose opposes the agenda item and spoke before the committee, voicing his concerns over non-motorized cart vendors utilizing the City sidewalks. His concerns included ADA accessibility, regulation of signage, L.A. County health certification and trash.

The second request was submitted by Kevin Lachoff, regarding Action Item A-6. Mr. Lachoff opposes the agenda item and spoke before the committee voicing his concerns on behalf of area business owners. His concerns include where the non-motorized carts are setting up, their business hours, charging for use of City property (sidewalks), ADA compliance and insurance requirements.
