

After a successful inaugural year the Culver City Equity & Human Relations Advisory Committee requested to the Culver City Council that the City honor four outstanding contributions to equity and human relations by residents or member of Culver City. March 2022 Culver City will present four recipients who have embodied inclusiveness, altruism, and giving through volunteerism and public service to make Culver City a better place for all people to live.

What: The Equity & Human Relations Advisory Committee will be presenting four community members with an Equity & Human Relations Award (Medallion) for their outstanding commitment and embodiment of equity and human relations in the city of Culver City. Nominees include:

- Culver City Resident
- Culver City Student (Elementary, Middle School, High School, and West LA College)
- Culver City Business Owner or Non-profit ED
- Culver City Employee or Employed at an organization in Culver City

Who: Culver City resident, business owner, student, or person's employed in the city may nominate an individual who embodies said attributes who resides, works, is a student, or owns a business in the city. (NEEDS CLARIFICATION)

When: Submission of nominations will begin September 2021 through Friday, December 17, 2021. The nominees will be selected March 2022. Ceremony honoring honorees will take place March 2022. Date and Time TBD.

How: Nomination forms, instructions and detailed criteria can be found at: