Joint Public Comment - Items Not on the Agenda

Mayor Weissman invited public comment.

The following members of the audience addressed the City Council:

Matthew Hetz, Culver City Symphony Orchestra, announced a concert on April 6 at Veterans Auditorium.

Mary Anne Greene, Parks, Recreation and Community Services Commissioner, invited everyone to attend a Community Conversation in Council Chambers on April 2 on Food vs. Mind and Body.

Bernadette Kim provided a presentation on her issues with Hanlion Construction; expressed disappointment in the system; and requested help from the City Council in resolving the issue.

Discussion ensued between Mayor Weissman and Ms. Kim regarding clarification that the complaint is with regard to a contractor doing work on her property; protection of clients vs. protection of workers on construction sites; jurisdiction of the City; permits; inspections; state vs. city jurisdiction; differences in the inspection process based on the size of the home, age of the home, income, whether it is a businesses, and remodeling status; differences between the Culver City inspection processes and those of other cities; acknowledgement of budget constraints; ADA compliance; and it was agreed that staff would speak with Ms. Kim regarding the matter.

Stephen Murray, Make Culver City Safe, reported attending a four hour seminar called Fracking and Democracy at West Los Angeles College; discussed health and safety issues; democratic issues; noted that the event was a partnership between the community and West LA College; he discussed a draft rights based ordinance to address democratic issues and threats to health and safety; noted that other cities had been working on rights based ordinances; indicated that there would be workshops on the ordinance; and he invited Councilmembers to participate in the process.

Cary Anderson discussed information and the dissemination of information; agendas; the change of meeting time for the Committee on Permits and Licenses; issues with the video system; agenda attachments; and notification regarding the change of meeting day for the City Council this week.

Mayor Weissman thanked Mr. Anderson for bringing attention to the issues and noted that they were aware of the broadcasting issues and working to try to solve them.

(Out of Sequence)

Authorization to Issue a Request for Qualifications (RFQ) for Brokerage Services Related to the Disposition of City-Owned Property Located 10745 Cranks Road and 11304 Segrell Way (Former Fire Station #3)

Martin Cole, Assistant City Manager/City Clerk, reported receipt of comments from Sunkist Park residents noting that copies of their comments had been made part of the public record.

Discussion ensued between staff and Councilmembers regarding addressing public comments; clarification on what is being decided; single family residences vs. multi-family configurations; maintaining the current zoning code; consistency with single family residences in the area; the RFQ; creative alternatives to single family residences on the lot; language in the current RFQ; unsolicited proposals; the disposition process; increasing density; R-1 zoning; hiring a Real Estate broker to represent the City; clarification that the RFQ has nothing to do with the zoning at this point; and alternative developments.

Councilmember Sahli-Wells moved to go forward with the RFQ with any proposals addressed as they come forward. Councilmember O'Leary seconded the motion.

Further discussion ensued between Councilmembers and staff regarding eliminating the language referring to alternative developments; compatibility criteria; creativity and innovation; retaining the neighborhood character; concern with time spent considering alternative projects that may not fit well; Cranks Road; and the Segrell site and multiple units.

MOVED BY COUNCILMEMBER SAHLI-WELLS AND SECONDED BY COUNCILMEMBER O'LEARY THAT THE CITY COUNCIL APPROVE THE ISSUANCE OF A REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS FOR BROKERAGE SERVICES RELATED TO THE DISPOSITION OF CITY-OWNED PROPERTY LOCATED 10745 CRANKS ROAD AND 11304 SEGRELL WAY WITH PROPOSALS ADDRESSED AS THEY COME FORWARD FOR VETTING. Item C-4
(Out of Sequence)

Adoption of an Ordinance Amending Title 17, Zoning, of the Culver City Municipal Code, Section 17.400.100 - Residential Uses - Accessory Residential Structures and Section 17.610.020 - Nonconforming Structures (Zoning Code Amendment ZCA P-2011100)

Martin Cole, Assistant City Manager/City Clerk, provided a correction to a typographical error in the staff report.

Mayor Weissman invited public participation.

The following members of the audience addressed the City Council:

Eleanor Osgood noted that public notification of non-conforming items had been part of the previous discussion of the ordinance and she questioned why that had been left out of the staff report.

Discussion ensued between staff, Councilmembers and Ms. Osgood regarding early notification to abutting property owners who might have an interest in a legal non-conforming accessory structure; clarification that notice would be a courtesy as the projects are not subject to special review; instructing to staff regarding noticing of abutting neighbors; instituting a new process; a draft notice being worked on with the City Attorney's Office; clarification that noticing would only apply to accessory structures and legal non-conforming structures; timing of the courtesy notice; ensuring that dialogue is started as early as possible; and the radius of notification.

Rich Waters discussed the previous discussion of the item; a previous issue in the City with a large accessory structure being built; problems with the process; the importance of early notification to the adjacent residents; and courtesy notice vs. mandatory notice.

Discussion ensued between staff and Councilmembers regarding clarification that the courtesy notices were not legally required but would be provided as instructed by the City Council; consequences of not sending the notification; clarification that the noticing procedures being discussed were for projects that only require a building permit while projects that need discretionary approvals have legally required noticing requirements; and kudos to the Planning Division for providing courtesy notices posted on the City website.

MOVED BY COUNCILMEMBER CLARKE, SECONDED BY COUNCILMEMBER SAHLI-WELLS AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE CITY COUNCIL ADOPT THE PROPOSED ORDINANCE (ATTACHMENT NO. 1) AMENDING TITLE 17, ZONING (THE "ZONING CODE"), OF THE CULVER CITY MUNICIPAL CODE (CCMC) SECTION 17.400.100 – RESIDENTIAL USES – ACCESSORY RESIDENTIAL STRUCTURES AND SECTION 17.610.020 – NONCONFORMING STRUCTURES (ZONING CODE AMENDMENT ZCA P- 2011100).

Action Items

Item A-1

(1) Presentation and Discussion of an Overview of Proposed Legislation (Bills) for the 2013-2014 State Legislative Session and (2) Direction to the City Manager Related Thereto

Shelly Wolfberg, Assistant to the City Manager. provided a summary of the material of record.

Councilmember Clarke discussed the ad hoc subcommittee; the importance of taking a position on issues that have an impact on the City; the League of California Cities; prioritizing efforts; deadlines; State vs. Federal legislation; and bills under consideration.

Councilmember Sahli-Wells discussed the importance of trying to influence legislation that affects Culver City.

Mayor Weissman invited public comment.

The following members of the audience addressed the City Council:

Carlene Brown, Community Coalition for Prevention of Gun Violence, expressed regret that she would not be present for the discussion of gun legislation planned for the April 8 City Council meeting; requested City support of Senator Feinstein's Assault Weapons Ban, SB47 pertaining to assault weapons, and SB53 requiring permits for ammunition; she discussed actions by the Culver City School Board; and reported making a presentation to Culver High students and encouraging them to watch the City Council meeting.

Mayor Weissman received clarification regarding the content of the item proposed for the April 8th City Council agenda.

Councilmember O'Leary clarified that Councilmembers would not act based upon getting re-elected.

Joe McChesney, Community Coalition for Prevention of Gun Violence, wanted to see a more sensible approach to guns and legislation.

Discussion ensued between staff and Councilmembers regarding pulling SB7 (related to prevailing wages) for separate consideration; clarification that the request is to support opposition to the state mandate on local authority; and affects to Culver City if the Steinberg Bill passes.

The City Council provided consensus to place the topic of prevailing wages on a future City Council agenda.

MOVED BY COUNCILMEMBER CLARKE, SECONDED BY COUNCILMEMBER O'LEARY AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE CITY COUNCIL:

1. RECEIVE AND FILE THE OVERVIEW OF LEGISLATION FOR THE 2013-2014 LEGISLATIVE SESSION; AND,

Item A-3

(1) Consideration of the Amount of In-Kind Assistance for and Possible City Sponsorship of the Culver City Exchange Club 2013 Car Show; (2) (If Desired) Approval of Street Closures Related Thereto; and (3) Approval of a Related License Agreement

Mayor Weissman invited public comment.

The following member of the audience addressed the City Council:

Cary Anderson expressed concern with parking enforcement; discussed previous permit violations by the car show; conditions of approval; advertising requirements; language regarding enforcement; permit parking; police discretion; and the number of tickets written in 2010.

Discussion ensued between staff and Councilmembers regarding enforcement; limited City staff; oversight and coordination; permit parking; parking information on the Car Show website; advertising; signage; and providing information about where low cost parking is available.

Vice Mayor Cooper disclosed that he is a member of the Exchange Club but not an officer so he was not required to recuse himself from the discussion.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Councilmembers regarding the number of complaints regarding the parking situation; the number of citations written; parking intrusions into the neighborhood; the proposed police budget for the event in 2012 vs. 2013; true costs; and the annual Fourth of July event for 2013.

Vice Mayor Cooper requested that the Exchange Club pay no more than $10,425 to the City with the City acting as co-sponsor, and he discussed the number of people brought into the City by the six-hour event.

Further discussion ensued between Councilmembers and staff regarding additional staffing; costs associated with the 2012 show; and reserve officers vs. sworn police officers.

Councilmember O'Leary exited Council Chambers.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Councilmembers regarding the proposed waiver of $7,711; making up the difference in costs with increased parking citations; labor and hard costs; the Exchange Club request to pay the same amount of costs as were incurred in 2012; 2012 actual costs vs. what the Exchange Club paid; police department costs; City contributions; co-sponsorship; the number of attendees; the half-cent sales tax increase; costs associated with CicLAvia; the Exchange Club request to place a cap on the amount paid to $10,425.16; true costs; keeping the Exchange Club contribution comparable to the CicLAvia contribution; needs of the Car Show vs. the needs of CicLAvia; staggering staff times for the Car Show; revenue from parking placards; capping the figure at $14,375; commerce and publicity generated by the Car Show; and support of the Downtown Business Association (DBA).

Councilmember Sahli-Wells moved to cap the amount at $14,375. Mayor Weissman seconded the motion.

Further conversation ensued between Councilmembers and staff regarding the lack of support by the DBA; benefits to retail businesses; vendors that compete with downtown businesses; and a suggestion to work with the DBA to make up the difference in money.

MOVED BY COUNCILMEMBER SAHLI-WELLS AND SECONDED BY MAYOR WEISSMAN THAT THE CITY COUNCIL:

1. DETERMINE THE LEVEL OF IN-KIND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO PROVIDE TO THE EXCHANGE CLUB RELATED TO THE 2013 CAR SHOW BE

$7,711 WITH A CAP OF $14,375 IN THE AMOUNT TO BE PAID TO THE CITY BY THE EXCHANGE CLUB; AND,

2. (IN THE CASE SUCH IN-KIND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE IS DETERMINED TO BE AT LEAST $1,000), DESIGNATE THE 2013 CAR SHOW AS A CITY SPONSORED EVENT; AND,

3. APPROVE THE FULL STREET CLOSURES OF MAIN STREET FROM CULVER BOULEVARD TO VENICE BOULEVARD, CULVER BOULEVARD AND WASHINGTON BOULEVARD BETWEEN CANFIELD AVENUE AND DUQUESNE/HUGHES AVENUE; PARTIAL STREET CLOSURES OF DELMAS TERRACE, WATSEKA AVENUE, CARDIFF AVENUE AND CANFIELD AVENUE; AND STREET CLOSURES AT THE NORTH END OF LAFAYETTE PLACE, IRVING PLACE, AND VAN BUREN PLACE AT CULVER BOULEVARD; AND,
