

RECOMMENDED CIVIL DISCOURSE GUIDELINES

IMPLEMENTATION PLAN

(August 23, 2022)

- The Equity and Human Relations Advisory Committee (EHRAC) approve and adopt the final Recommended Civil Discourse Guidelines
- The EHRAC request that staff submit to the City Council for adoption final Recommended Civil Discourse Guidelines.
- The EHRAC authorize the following EHRAC members to speak on behalf of the EHRAC at the City Council meeting when the Recommended Civil Discourse Guidelines are being considered and adopted by the City Council: Carlos Valverde, Chair of the EHRAC; Rebecca Rona-Tuttle, former chair of the EHRAC and Michelle Dennis, member of the EHRAC.
- The City Council direct staff to send the City Council adopted Recommended Civil Discourse Guidelines to all City Boards, Committees and Commissions and department heads for appropriate action.
- The City Council direct staff to prepare and offer an appropriate informative presentation concerning the Recommended Civil Discourse Guidelines to Chair Persons of all City Boards, Committees and Commissions, and all City department heads.
- The City Council authorize the EHRAC to make the City Council Adopted Recommended Civil Discourse Guidelines available to all organizations within the boundaries of the City of Culver City where matters of civic importance, including equity and human relations, are discussed.
