

A JOINT DECLARATION of the Cities of
Capo d'Orlando, Province of Messina, Sicily, Italy
and
Culver City, California, United States of America

WHEREAS, delegations from the City of Capo d'Orlando, in the Province of Messina, Sicily, Italy and the City of Culver City, in the State of California, United States of America, at the request of Mayor Franco Ingrilli of Capo d'Orlando, gathered together on this day, _____, 2017, in the City of _____, on behalf of their respective citizens, established a formal relationship based on mutual understanding and friendly cooperation between the peoples of these great nations and cities; and

WHEREAS, the development and promotion of such a people-to-people relationship is hereby formalized as a "Sister City" relationship between the two cities; and

WHEREAS, the mutual benefits of this sister city relationship between the people of the two cities will result in common benefits, such as:

The cities of Culver City and Capo d'Orlando, look forward to developing a long-term, cooperative relationship through cultural, educational, business, and technical exchanges.

We shall initially explore the following:

Adult and student exchanges to explore mutually beneficial areas of interest in the arts, culture, education, sports, business development, travel and tourism;

Develop collaborative projects between schools using available technology to enhance communication and the exchange of ideas

NOW, THEREFORE, the representatives of the CITY OF CAPO D'ORLANDO and the CITY OF CULVER CITY, jointly declare the sister city relationship as set forth above, and each shall take all appropriate steps to foster the relationship among the people of their respective cities.

SIGNED AND DATED the ____ of ____, 2017, in the City of Capo D'Orlando, Province of Messina, Sicily, Italy.

Franco Ingrilli
Mayor
City of Capo D'Orlando

SIGNED AND DATED the ____ of ____, 2017, in the City of Culver City, California, United States of America.

Jeffrey Cooper
Mayor
City of Culver City