Action Items

Jesse Mays, Assistant to the City Manager, provided a summary of the material of record noting that the paragraph with the statistics about COVID-19 cases would be changed on the bottom of page one with the revised resolution including the following modified first sentence: "Whereas, as of May 11, 2020, Johns Hopkins University reported 4,137,591 confirmed COVID-19 cases globally and 283,478 deaths, 1,332,411 cases nationally with 79,607 deaths, and 67,875 cases in California with 2,718 deaths, and the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health reported 31,703 cases in Los Angeles County with 1,531 deaths, which included 116 cases and 3 deaths in Culver City."

Heather Baker, Assistant Senior City Attorney, discussed the current expiration of the commercial and residential moratoria on May 31, 2020 noting that they are not affected by the potential expiration of other moratoria on May 15, 2020; she added that once moratoria expire, tenants have twelve months to pay back rent owed, while continuing to keep current with their rent; and she clarified that nothing in the moratoria requires the landlord to forgive back rent.

Discussion ensued between staff and Council Members regarding revisiting the commercial rent payback period; making modifications to the order; and large companies taking advantage of opportunities to delay rent payments.

Mayor Eriksson invited public comment.

Mimi Ferrel, City Clerk Specialist, read public comments submitted by:

Dennis Page: provided background on himself; expressed concern that tenants were not required to provide justification for not paying rent; expressed concern with having to pay City fees; he felt that tenants controlled his income; and he asked Culver City to make rules that protect owners, not just tenants.

Debi Lee: asserted that extending the moratorium was unnecessary and would delay the much needed boost to get the economy going again; suggested that things might get better before 12 months and that housing providers should not have to wait that long to receive payment; and she proposed delaying rental registration until after the November election to see if the rent control initiative passes.

Kelli Hawkins: provided a letter from Uniball-Rodamco-Westfield indicating their support of tenants and local communities; detailed efforts in Culver City through the #WestfieldCares campaign; discussed their focus on reopening the shopping center; restoring local jobs and energizing the local economy; annual revenue and taxes paid; work with tenants on deferral of rental payments; and continued payment of fixed costs by Westfield.

Meg Sullivan: provided background on herself; requested that the City Council oppose Item A-1; noted the uncertainty of the duration of the pandemic; discussed repayment of unpaid rents; effects of the pandemic on housing providers; and she suggested following the lead of other cities by providing city-funded rental assistance programs.

Judy Scott: described her experience during the last recession; noted dire predictions for the economy moving forward and the need for federal intervention to shore up the economy; and she expressed support for a rental assistance program similar to what has been enacted in Anaheim rather than extending the Interim Rent Control Ordinance (IRCO).

Mimi Ferrel, City Clerk Specialist, read public comment submitted by:

Vice Mayor Fisch received City Council consensus to direct staff to bring back consideration of the request from Westfield that the City Council consider different pay back periods for commercial tenants depending on various criteria.

Discussion ensued between staff and Council Members regarding exceptions for modifying the twelve month period; a suggestion to defer the matter until after the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors considers it on May 12, 2020; confirming the order with direction to bring back a discussion of modifications to the grace period depending on the nature and type of commercial tenants; the past practice of trying to follow what Los Angeles county is doing; the potential for the county to exclude commercial tenants that are multi-national, publicly traded or more than 100 employees, and require commercial tenants with 10 or more, but less than 100 employees but lease a space of 250,000 square feet or more, to have no more than 6 months following the end of the moratorium period to pay landlords in equal installments, unless the tenant and landlord agree to an alternative payment, commencing June 1, 2020; confusion between the eviction moratoria repayment grace periods for commercial and residential properties; large, well-capitalized entities; City Council consensus was achieved to bring back the question of extending the moratoria on May 18; clarification that the courts are not currently processing evictions; the actions of Santa Monica and West Hollywood to extend their moratoria; possible extension of residential and commercial moratoria past May 31 and potentially making modifications to the twelve month payback period for commercial tenants based on the type of commercial tenant; and appreciation to staff for clarification regarding the twelve month payback period.

MOVED BY VICE MAYOR FISCH, SECONDED BY COUNCIL MEMBER SAHLI-WELLS AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE CITY COUNCIL: ADOPT A RESOLUTION CONFIRMING THE APRIL 28, 2020 EIGHTH SUPPLEMENT TO PUBLIC ORDER (EXTENDING THE EVICTION MORATORIA PAYMENT PERIOD FOR UNPAID RENT TO 12 MONTHS) AND THE MAY 1, 2020 NINTH SUPPLEMENT TO PUBLIC ORDER (REVISED SAFER AT HOME ORDER) ISSUED BY THE CITY MANAGER, AS DIRECTOR OF EMERGENCY SERVICES, UNDER CITY OF CULVER CITY EMERGENCY AUTHORITY, DUE TO THE CORONAVIRUS RESPIRATORY DISEASE (COVID-19) PANDEMIC.

Rich Kissel: requested that housing providers be given a framework for securing a reasonable debt from tenants who enjoyed safe housing during their difficult time.

Council Member Small asked about involving the Landlord Tenant Mediation Board (LTMB) to create a reasonable repayment plan.

Vice Mayor Fisch discussed mutual benefit; encouraging landlords and tenants to create a reasonable repayment plan or the requirement that the landlord provide one before serving a three-day notice; the ability to waive rent or extend repayment beyond the twelve month period; clarification that the voluntary repayment plan is not a cause to evict during the twelve month grace period; and clarification regarding City involvement.

Discussion ensued between staff and Council Members regarding residential renters; the role of the LTMB as set forth in the municipal code; making recommendations rather than requirements; avoiding creating animosity in the landlord/tenant relationship; using the actions of other cities as a model; encouraging communication between tenants and landlords; concern with creating an undue burden on renters; and landlords who are willing to work with renters.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Council Members regarding separate consideration of commercial renters; City Council consensus to continue the discussion to the May 18 City Council meeting to allow time to gauge what the county is doing; maximizing relief; and landlords with less leverage than tenants who are national retailers.

Jeremy Green, City Clerk, provided a summary of the material of record.

Mayor Eriksson invited public comment.

Mimi Ferrel, City Clerk Specialist, read written public comment submitted by:

Jeff Schwartz: asserted that the measure would deny Culver City renters legal protections and expose residents to harassment; discussed rent burdened residents in the City; the need to protect residents; residential displacement; health risks; putting profits ahead of people; the need for stable affordable housing; the current rent freeze; annual increases; reasonable rate of return; the ability of landlords to ask for an exception; the petition drive for the measure; renters who fear retaliation for speaking out; and attempts to confuse voters.

Ron Bassilian: discussed the initiative to require voter approval; misleading statements made by then-Mayor Sahli-Wells; signature collection and gatherers; he asserted that their petition had received more signatures than the top voter getter in the 2018 municipal election; lack of knowledge by residents about the IRCO; consultant findings; lack of communication about the issue; the COVID-driven recession; he asked that the rent registry be delayed until after the November election; and he wanted to see rent control decided on the November ballot.

Ron Smoire and Marla Koosed: felt the rent control measure deserved to be put on the ballot.

Dennis Page: asked that the ordinance be delayed until after the November election; expressed opposition to the rental registry; expressed concern with micromanaging apartment owners; and felt tenants should be required to pay the fees for their own protection, not owners.

Richard Glaser: asked that any permanent rent control items be delayed until after the election, including the rent registry; discussed the company hired to investigate rent increases; and noted affects to "mom and pop" landlords who provide affordable housing.

Mayor Eriksson clarified that the decision before the City Council was to determine whether to put the item on the ballot in November, accept it as proposed, or have staff return with additional information.

Council Member Sahli-Wells moved to accept the Los Angeles county certification of sufficiency of an initiative petition on a proposed measure regarding rent control and submit the proposed ordinance, without alteration, to the voters, to be placed on the ballot for the general municipal election on November 3, 2020, pursuant to elections code section 1405 (a) and Council Member Lee seconded the motion.

Vice Mayor Fisch clarified that the petition did not have more signatures than the top vote getter in the 2018 municipal election.

MOVED BY COUNCIL MEMBER SAHLI-WELLS, SECONDED BY COUNCIL MEMBER LEE AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE CITY COUNCIL:

1. ACCEPT THE LA COUNTY CERTIFICATION OF SUFFICIENCY OF AN INITIATIVE PETITION ON A PROPOSED MEASURE REGARDING RENT CONTROL; AND

2.B. SUBMIT THE PROPOSED ORDINANCE, WITHOUT ALTERATION, TO THE VOTERS, TO BE PLACED ON THE BALLOT FOR THE GENERAL MUNICIPAL ELECTION ON NOVEMBER 3, 2020, PURSUANT TO ELECTIONS CODE SECTION 1405(A) .
