Item A-1

Presentation and Discussion in Honor of Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month by Anita Gaur; (2) Discuss and Share Comments about the Presentation; and (3) Provide Direction to Staff if Deemed Appropriate

Chair Rona introduced the item.

Vice Chair Valverde introduced Anita Gaur from the Asian Pacific Cultural Union at Culver City High School.

Anita Gaur, Asian Pacific Cultural Union, discussed the club meeting structure; education; information about topics affecting the community; recent issues with Asian Hate; the partnership with AAPI So Cal; movies, podcasts and books available to understand the Asian perspective; and she presented a video providing background on the club and on Asian American Pacific Islander month.

Discussion ensued between Ms. Gaur and Committee Members regarding appreciation for the presentation; bravery; personal heroes; diversity and co-existence; the rise in violence and hate crime; the focus on eastern Asians; clarification regarding what is considered Asia; recommendations for the EHRAC; and agreement by Ms. Gaur to share resources with the Committee.

Item A-2

1) Discuss and Share Comments on the Hate Crimes Report and Community Conversation Held on May 14, 2021; and (2) Provide Direction to Staff if Deemed Appropriate

Chair Rona invited public comment.

Stephanie Condran, Human Resources Analyst, reported that no public comment had been received.

Member Moammar discussed the Hate Crimes Report and Community Conversation held on May 14; the work of the Subcommittee to put on the event; and she indicated that she would like the event to be held annually with solutions offered.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding the fact that reported incidents are a fraction of what actually happens; facilitating greater understanding in the City; work done in the Social Work Masters Program; defining hate crimes; racial slurs; verbal abuse; racial aggressions; micro-aggressions; education; guidance; providing enough time for the speaker to present and the moderator to ask questions; asking the police department direct questions to find out how crimes are managed; anecdotal evidence indicating that the police do not address issues; School District jurisdiction; defining hate crime and addressing it; feeling safe enough to report issues;

graffiti; vandalism; requesting that the police take part on an equal footing with the presenter; what was learned from the experience to shape future discussion; appreciation for ideas on how witnesses can intervene; providing witness intervention training; asking other bodies in the City such as the Parks Recreation and Community Services Commission about what they do to address hate incidents in the parks; involving other organizations in the presentation; the focus of the presentation on the police and the Prison Industrial Complex; support for a different kind of report; working to improve outreach in the future; The Culver City News; the Culver City Facebook page; events with banners; and engaging in an overall discussion regarding improved outreach for future events.

Chair Rona invited public comment.

The following member of the public addressed the Committee:

Yasmine-Imani McMorris, Council Member, congratulated the Committee on their first event; indicated that she had amplified the event on her Facebook page and would do her best to continue that for future events; discussed much needed context and data; concerns about the reliance on police as being the only accountability check for this behavior; laws that provide no protection against violence and no material changes to the conditions that produced it after the fact; she recommended We Do This 'Til We Free Us by Mariame Kaba; investing in tools that offer alternatives outside of the Prison Industrial Complex; building community; finding a way to respond to real issues that people are experiencing; the tenor of the presentation; the need to innovate and provide education to the wider community; and education that does not center on calling the police.

Item A-3

(1) Receive Report from the Ad Hoc Subcommittee to Plan Public Events for the 2020-2021 Fiscal Year Regarding the Juneteenth Celebration; (2) Discuss, Modify (if Desired) and Approve the Report's Recommendations, and Determine Next Steps on Implementing the Work Plan; and (3) Provide Direction to Staff If Deemed Appropriate

Chair Rona introduced the item.

Member Moammar reported meeting with Cicely Bingener who held a similar event last year; she discussed meetings; and she summarized the Subcommittee report.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding appreciation for the effort put into the event; historic information available; choosing the most effective time for the event; press releases; outreach; distribution of electronic and hard copy fliers; lead time necessary to promote the event; and agreement to adopt the plan with the time to be determined later.

MOVED BY MEMBER BANO, SECONDED BY MEMBER GRIMES AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE EQUITY AND HUMAN RELATIONS ADVISORY COMMITTEE ACCEPT THE AGENDA FOR THE JUNETEENTH EVENT AS WRITTEN, WITH THE TIME TO BE DETERMINED BY THE SUBCOMMITTEE (ABSENT MEMBER MCBRIDE).

Item A-4

(1) Receive Report from the Ad Hoc Subcommittee to Plan Public Events for the 2021-2022 Fiscal Year; (2) Discuss Report Recommendations and Determine Next Steps on Implementing Work Plan; and (3) Provide Direction to Staff If Deemed Appropriate

Chair Rona invited public comment.

Stephanie Condran, Human Resources Analyst, reported that no public comment had been received.

Chair Rona discussed the Committee budget; money spent on training; appreciation to staff for their encouragement to increase the budget; carryover funds; the amount of money available for the next fiscal year; Committee bylaws regarding meeting frequency; and she provided a correction noting text should read "Civil Discourse Workshop: Member Michelle Dennis volunteers to take the lead".

Vice Chair Valverde provided a summary of the report for the Public Events Ad Hoc Subcommittee for Fiscal Year 2021-2022; he noted that ideas would have to be fleshed out with further subcommittee meetings; he encouraged Members to think about what they want to participate in; he discussed proposed events; event components; partnerships; continued subcommittee work; and input from the full Committee.

Member Dennis discussed the purpose of the proposed Civil Discourse Workshop; outreach; participation; and facilitation by outside experts.

Chair Rona discussed Transgender National Day of Remembrance; the request from staff for events to take place at the regular meeting time; and she reported that Justin Jampole of the Wende Museum had offered to host the event free of charge.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding the Civil Discourse Workshop; the importance of the book mentioned by Council Member McMorris and a suggestion to include it in several events; timing for the workshops; certification; creation of the ad hoc subcommittees; the proposed Indigenous Peoples' Day event; the annual event at University High School; the proposed Non-Violence Workshop; scheduling; staff support; combining events with regular meetings; standing action items; the bylaws; regular meetings; special meetings; creation of an ad hoc training subcommittee; and the need for additional work and consideration by the ad hoc subcommittee.

MOVED BY MEMBER DENNIS, SECONDED BY VICE CHAIR VALVERDE AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE EQUITY AND HUMAN RELATIONS ADVISORY COMMITTEE ACCEPT THE LIST OF PROPOSED EVENTS WITH DIRECTION TO THE SUBCOMMITTEE TO RETURN IN JUNE WITH SPECIFIC RECOMMENDATIONS FOR DATES AND WHICH EVENTS WOULD BE STAND-ALONE AND WHICH WOULD BE COMBINED WITH REGULAR MEETINGS (ABSENT MEMBER MCBRIDE).

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding Committee Member participation in events and clarification that the community calendar on the City website indicates which Fridays the City is closed.

o0o

Item A-5

(1) Further Discussion of the Report from the EHRAC Outreach and Communication Ad Hoc Subcommittee on Recommendations for Changes to the EHRAC Webpage, and Determine Next Steps on Implementing Said Recommendations; and (2) Provide Direction to Staff If Deemed Appropriate

Chair Rona indicated that she had requested that the item be held over until the June EHRAC meeting pending a report from staff regarding protocol and responses to each of the ad hoc subcommittee recommendations.

o0o

Public Comment - Items NOT On the Agenda

Chair Rona invited public comment.

Stephanie Condran, Human Resources Analyst, reported that no public comment had been received.
