

Indigenous Peoples Day Celebration

Report by members of the Indigenous Peoples Day Ad Hoc Subcommittee
Equity and Human Relations Advisory Committee

Ad Hoc Subcommittee Members

Anissa Di Vincente, committee member

Rebecca Rona, committee chair

The committee voted to hold the (virtual) Indigenous Peoples Day Celebration at 7:30pm, Tuesday, October 12, the day after Indigenous Peoples Day.

We, the ad hoc subcommittee, propose an Indigenous People's Day Celebration composed of the following elements, in this order:

- Brief welcome by the chair
- Music performed by a Native American musical ensemble
- Speaker: Miztlayxochitl Aguilero (culture, challenges)
- Q&A with speaker
- Student art, presented individually (approximately 5 pieces)
- Speaker: Charles Alvarez, Tribal Chairman, Gabrielino Tribe (Gabrielino history)
- Q&A with speaker
- Photo presentation of historical Gabrielino sites
- Native American expression of gratitude (similar to a prayer, to send people on their way)

This event will last no longer than 1.5 hours, from 7pm until 9:30pm.
