Public Comment - Items Not on the Agenda

Vice Chair Zeidman invited public comment.

The following members of the audience addressed the Commission:

Dr. Janet Hoult, Honorary Artist Laureate for Poetry in Culver City, noted that the Centennial Poetry book contained poetry about Culver City, and she reported that proceeds for her new book, Going to the Dogs and Other Critters, would be donated to the Culver City Dog Park, with the book available at amazon.com.

Khin Khin Gyi requested that issues with lighting at Blanco Park be addressed.

Discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding staff agreement to follow up on the issue and report back to the Commission.

Action Items

Item A-1

PRCSC - Consideration of a Recommendation to the City Council Regarding Establishing the "Ballona Creek Connection Designated Dog Path," which will Augment the Existing Culver City Park Designated Dog Path, Creating a Continuous Dog Path that Connects the Ballona Creek Bike Path with the Baldwin Hills Scenic Overlook Western Gateway

Patricia Mooney, Senior Management Analyst, provided a summary of comments received.

Vice Chair Zeidman invited public comment.

The following members of the audience addressed the Commission:

Sally Garcia, Mountains Conservation and Recreations Authority, expressed support for the designated dog path; discussed their efforts on the Park to Playa Regional Trail noting that the item was a critical element to the plan; and she indicated that if the item was not approved, Culver City Park would be only portion where dog access would not be allowed, creating a significant gap and an enforcement problem.

David McNeill, Baldwin Hills Conservancy, thanked staff for their efforts; discussed trash cans on the route; signage; coordination; the mobility aspect of having a regional trail in the area; and he reported that California State Parks was in support of having dogs on the trail through the Baldwin Hills Scenic Overlook and through Culver City Park.

Discussion ensued between the speaker and Commissioners regarding concerns raised about potential conflicts between dogs and people or with other dogs; dogs vs. wildlife; sensitive habitat; signage; and enforcement.

Further discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding appreciation to staff for their work; concern with proximity of the path to where the children warm up for Little League; comments regarding keeping the dogs off the Boardwalk; clarification regarding the accessible path; the feeling that service dogs are better trained and would be acceptable on the accessible trail; signage regulating those who do not need accessibility from using the path; and dispensers.

Commissioner Heineman moved to approve the designated dog path.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding making it clear that the ADA accessible route is only for use by those with disabilities and their animals.

MOVED BY COMMISSIONER HEINEMAN AND SECONDED BY COMMISSIONER AMEZOLA THAT THE PARKS, RECREATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMISSION MAKE A RECOMMENDATION TO THE CITY COUNCIL TO ESTABLISH THE "BALLONA CREEK CONNECTION DESIGNATED DOG PATH," WHICH WILL AUGMENT THE EXISTING CULVER CITY PARK DESIGNATED DOG PATH, CREATING A CONTINUOUS DOG PATH THAT CONNECTS THE BALLONA CREEK BIKE PATH WITH THE BALDWIN HILLS SCENIC OVERLOOK WESTERN GATEWAY; ROUTE 1, THE EXTENSION OF THE EXISTING CULVER CITY PARK DESIGNATED DOG PATH, IS RECOMMENDED AS A DESIGNATED DOG PATH FOR MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC ACCOMPANIED BY DOGS; AND, ROUTE 2, THE TRAIL THAT INCLUDES THE BOARDWALK, IS RECOMMENDED AS A FULLY ACCESSIBLE ADA PATH FOR THOSE WITH DISABILITIES ACCOMPANIED BY SERVICE ANIMALS AND NOT AS A DESIGNATED DOG PATH.

THE MOTION CARRIED BY THE FOLLOWING VOTE:

AYES: AMEZOLA, HEINEMAN, MOHAMMED, ZEIDMAN
NOES: NONE
ABSENT: RICKARDS

Item A-2

PRCSC - Any or All of the Following Actions, if Desired]
(1) Finalize the Arrangements for "Community Conversations
- Topic #8;" and/or, (2) Formation of Additional Ad Hoc Subcommittee(s); and, (3) Appointment of Two Commissioners
to the Newly-Formed Ad Hoc Subcommittees

Heather Baker, Assistant City Attorney, discussed work to resolve comfort level issues with the nature of the presentation; clips from the documentary for the presentation; references from schools; and brainstorming with peer educators on the proper title for the Conversation for consideration.

Discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding concern with advertising for the event; timing; the feeling that the date for the event should be changed to allow more time for preparation; ensuring that there is sufficient time to work with the schools; a suggestion to delay the event; the need for information to provide to the School District; progress made to date; satisfying the concerns of the City Attorney; the feeling that the title should not hold up the flier or the event; scheduling; concern with missing the opportunity; meeting with the Superintendent; concern with distributing a flier until the reference letters from other schools and clips are received and approved; clarification that staff does not foresee a problem with the clips, and recommendation letters are not required; the desire of staff to speak to the other schools; the proposed date and diligence with moving things forward in the next week; and a suggestion to take a recess for the Subcommittee Members to discuss the issue and come to a consensus.

Recess/Reconvene

Vice Chair Zeidman called a brief recess from 7:39 p.m. to 7:47 p.m.

Item A-2

PRCSC - Any or All of the Following Actions, if Desired]
(1) Finalize the Arrangements for "Community Conversations
- Topic #8;" and/or, (2) Formation of Additional Ad Hoc Subcommittee(s); and, (3) Appointment of Two Commissioners
to the Newly-Formed Ad Hoc Subcommittees

Commissioner Mohammed indicated that the Subcommittee had agreed to move forward to make the event happen in April and that work would proceed on a flier.

Discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding spring break; distribution of fliers; the topic;
and the need to change the original title: "#Me Too Changing Our Culture" to avoid political issues.

MOVED BY COMMISSIONER AMEZOLA AND SECONDED BY COMMISSIONER
MOHAMMED THAT THE PARKS, RECREATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMISSION MOVE FORWARD WITH PREPARATIONS TO HOLD A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION ON APRIL 18 WITH A TITLE TO BE DETERMINED.

THE MOTION CARRIED BY THE FOLLOWING VOTE:

AYES: AMEZOLA, HEINEMAN, MOHAMMED, ZEIDMAN
NOES: NONE
ABSENT: RICKARDS

Heather Baker, Assistant City Attorney, thanked the Subcommittee for their efforts on the item.

Item A-3

PRCSC - (1) Discussion Regarding the Use of Field Space for Adult Sports in Culver City Parks; and, (2) [If Desired] Provide Recommendations to City Staff for Future
Consideration

Vice Chair Zeidman expressed concern that there was not a public presence in Council Chambers when he understood there to be much interest in the item.

Discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding turf maintenance; outreach for the item; extensive Facebook comments about the fields; Commission agreement to continue the item; hiring a turf consultant; the importance of the issue; allowing the public a chance to weigh in; clarification that the item is not urgent; noticing the meeting on Nextdoor and Facebook; a suggestion to hold the May Commission meeting at a park; the ability to record the meeting at alternate locations; transcription; holding a discussion about the topic to receive community input but not necessarily to make a decision at that point; neighborhoods that feel their voice has not been heard; the process that the City Council followed with the drone item; clarification that if more than two Commissioners are in attendance at any meeting, it has to be a Commission meeting pursuant to the Brown Act; clarifying the purpose of the item for the public; and Commission consensus to postpone the item and hold a special meeting on May 15 at 7:00 P.M. at Veterans Park if available, with May 22 or 24 as alternate dates and Lindberg Park as an alternative location; agreement that the meeting be held indoors; clarification that there is no more soccer play at Culver West Park since it has been converted into a passive park; and Commissioners reported issues with their City email.
