Action Items

Item A-1

CC - Discussion with Senator Holly J. Mitchell on Topics and Activities of Mutual Interest

Senator Mitchell introduced new District Director Hannah Cho; discussed Governor Elect Gavin Newsome and his transition to leadership; homelessness and early education; the handout on SB 1 projects in Culver City; public policy issues; and the budget.

Council Member Eriksson asked about unfunded pension liabilities and what the discussion is like in the state capitol.

Senator Mitchell discussed work on a modified bailout for Oakland and Inglewood; indicated that there would likely be assistance for other cities; noted work being done on a legislative strategy; discussed public entities facing similar issues; examination by the state of ways to modify the pension system if needed; and modifications to inflow and current recipients.

Discussion ensued between staff, Senator Mitchell and Council Members regarding California as a Housing First state; following the model of Utah, which reduced homelessness by 90%; the need for community level conversations; Gross National Happiness in other countries; culture and the emphasis on taking care of the environment; and preparation by state legislators for the two-year legislative process to be presented during the second or third week of February.

Additional discussion ensued between the City Council and Senator Mitchell regarding the need for a lobbyist and Senator Mitchell suggested that the City look at surrounding cities and evaluate the need.

Further discussion ensued between Senator Mitchell, staff and Council Members regarding education; affordable housing; zoning; state incentives; the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG); lengthy commutes; cut-through traffic; achieving zero carbon emissions; redevelopment; congestion pricing; the General Plan Update; economic growth; private sector partnerships; Transit Oriented Development (TOD); redesigning Washington Boulevard; micro transit options; the Hayden Tract; Expo; focusing on equity; scooter safety; the Clean Power Alliance; the Inglewood Oil Field; online sales tax; Hinderliter de Llamas; low property taxes; and the National Conference for State Legislators.
