Presentations

DAC - City of Culver City Fire Department's Emergency Preparedness Plan Related to Members of the Community with Disabilities

Christine Parra, Culver City Fire Department Emergency Preparedness Coordinator, provided a presentation on emergency preparedness as it relates to members of the community with disabilities; discussed the existing Emergency Operations Plan; state criteria; evacuation considerations; sheltering requirements; Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) compliance; accessibility to information; periodic updates to the plan; the focus on COVID; the Active and Functional Needs (AFN) Community; Integrating Access and Functional Needs Within the Emergency Planning Process issued by the California Governor's Office of Emergency Service in order to implement AB 477; creation of an internal and external cohort of stakeholders to update the Plan; and recommendations to enhance the ADA Self Evaluation and Transition Plan from The Owens Group.

Member Ibarra indicated interest in helping with the update.

Daniel Dobbs, Culver City Fire Department EMS Captain, discussed their software program with information from the community routed through 911 dispatch; he indicated that the community can enter relevant information on the website, including medical information; and he noted that real time information and updates were available.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding engagement of those not on social media; computer access; assisted living facilities; nursing facilities; privacy; Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) compliance; daily communication with senior facilities due to COVID; bridging gaps for those without immediate access; identification of people in the community with disabilities who live alone; a suggestion that the Culver City Police Department (CCPD) be provided the same information; education; communication with those with developmental disabilities; the outside agency that handles 911 calls; clarification that on the rare occasion that Los Angeles handles calls, they would not have access to the database of information; availability of information to those responding; language capacity; communication with the deaf and non-verbal during service calls; use of translators; the language hotline; assistance of the DAC in communicating with the community; and appreciation for the presentation.

Item A-3

DAC - [Standing Item; Any or All of the Following Actions, If Desired] (1) Receipt and Filing of Updates from the Members of the Disability Advisory Committee Ad Hoc Subcommittees; (2) Formation of New and/or Dissolution of Existing Ad Hoc Subcommittee(s)

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding work to get people who are disabled included in art; the Culver Arts Foundation; the need for the Ad Hoc Subcommittee Focused on the Arts for and by the Disabled to meet; co-sponsorship of an event with the Equity and Human Relations Advisory Committee (EHRAC); and agreement to maintain the Community Development Block Grant Subcommittee with the current Members, though the work has been completed for this year.

Member Alvarez provided a report on the Human Relations Advisory Ad Hoc Subcommittee; discussed attending the EHRAC meeting; the draft of the EHRAC work plan; and he suggested that the DAC recognize members of the community that do good deeds for the disabled, similar to what the EHRAC does.

Member Goldhaber reported that the EHRAC wanted to change their name to the Human Relations Committee; she discussed the process undertaken by the EHRAC to edit their work plan; their work to include disenfranchised groups, including the disabled community; and she discussed overlap between the EHRAC and the DAC.

Member Hoult discussed her efforts in the formation of the EHRAC; technical difficulties attending the meetings; communication with the Chair; the appointment to fill the vacant position; overlap of the work plans for the DAC and the EHRAC; encouragement for DAC Members to attend the meetings; and event coordination between the two groups.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding attending meetings as a guest vs. as an official liaison; the difficulty being heard in large committees; the existing annual recognition program; clarification that the ADA Review Ad Hoc Subcommittee had not been able to meet; ADA complaints; the Transitional Plan; review of streets and sidewalks; the process to address complaints; the feeling that complaints do not need to go through the Ad Hoc Subcommittee; work previously done; retention of the ADA Subcommittee to be at the ready; Committee consensus to change the description for the ADA Review Ad Hoc Subcommittee to indicate that the mission is to consider any additional inquiries from City staff regarding the ADA Transitional Plan; and agreement to maintain the standing action item on each agenda regarding updates from all subcommittees.
