Community Services (PRCS) Commission's Recommendations to the City Council for the Fiscal Year 2020/2021 PRCS Department Budget

Chair Mohammed discussed the latest draft; incorporated changes; corrections; information filled in by staff; and he indicated that the document was more complete.

Discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding presentation of the Turf Report to the City Council; including the Turf Report with the letter; access to the report online; adding an endnote with a link as well as including a physical copy with the report; the Holiday Tree Lighting; low income funding; grammatical changes; ensuring that attachments are included; and minor changes to make the document more clear.

MOVED BY COMMISSIONER RICKARDS, SECONDED BY COMMISSIONER ZEIDMAN AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED THAT THE PARKS, RECREATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMISSION APPROVE, AS AMENDED, THE PRCS COMMISSION'S RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE CITY COUNCIL FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 2020-2021 PRCS DEPARTMENT BUDGET.

Chair Zeidman discussed other attachments; the turf refurbishment for all other sports fields; the multi-year project; and the list of open projects.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding projects currently in process; residual funds; the bidding process for the marquee; projects managed by PRCS vs. those managed by Public Works; whether funds can be repurposed; reallocation; upgrading park irrigation systems; the need for a Project Manager to help close out projects; and clarification that the Skate Park is within the budget.

Item A-3

PRCSC - Discussion of Potential Action Items to Address the Findings of the Culver City Age-Friendly Survey

Corey Lakin, Parks, Recreation and Community Services Director, provided a summary of the material of record noting the need to formulate three action items for the City Council.

Chair Mohammed invited public comment.

The following member of the audience addressed the Commission:

Göran Eriksson, Vice Mayor, discussed the request for three actionable items and prioritization.

Discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding ranking items in order of importance; providing more than three suggestions; additional items; communication; cleaning of the bathrooms; shade; 8 components of a livable community as defined by the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP); helping people understand how to take advantage of opportunities and available services; bathroom safety for the aging community; adding handrails and support bars in restrooms; the importance of the public input portion of communication; formulating a plan to achieve the requests; conducting a communications assessment; Tripepi Smith; social media; survey response; the new marquee; diversification of communication methods; identifying the most efficient methods to reach the target audience; the aging community; effectively reaching the senior population; a suggestion to propose a diverse working group to identify different modalities to communicate with the various segments of the senior community; the importance of developing a plan to reach those people who are not being reached and are currently not accessing available resources; and Commission consensus to support a recommendation to develop a plan to broaden the reach to seniors who are not engaging in the communications.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding making a recommendation to provide funding to increase natural and artificial shade structures at all parks; shading locations; the multi-year nature of the request; the action to implement more benches and shaded areas at all parks on an as needed basis; affordable public parking; Culver City amenities; survey feedback; opportunities for natural shade; other parts of the City needing shade; public transportation; Commission purview; the General Plan Update Committee; the "8 80 Cities" concept; areas with shade that just need benches; and Commission consensus to allocate more benches and shade at City parks.

Commissioner Heineman reported that she had visited all the bathrooms in the City and all were clean though sometimes there were no paper towels available.

Further discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding the AARP survey; public perception; the service maintenance plan for the bathrooms; the contractor; parks staff; scheduled cleanings; staffing; unscheduled activities vs. reserved activities; Bill Botts Field; bathroom availability; increasing the budget to provide available restrooms to areas that seniors use for walking; assessing whether parks and outdoor environments have restrooms accessible for seniors; the need to improve cleanliness, make more restrooms available and add safety equipment as needed; support bars; Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) requirements; the transition plan; compliance; and Commission consensus to recommend providing funding for increased restroom maintenance, increased restroom availability, and upgrading of park restroom facilities to comply with ADA requirements.

MOVED BY COMMISSIONER ZEIDMAN, SECONDED BY VICE CHAIR AMEZOLA AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE PARKS, RECREATION AND COMMUNITY SERVICES COMMISSION APPROVE THREE RECOMMENDATIONS TO SEND TO THE CITY COUNCIL PER THEIR EARLIER REQUEST:

1. DEVELOP A COMMUNICATIONS PLAN TO REACH SENIORS WHO ARE NOT SELF-ENGAGING; AND
2. ALLOCATE FUNDS FOR MORE BENCHES AND SHADE AT CULVER CITY PARKS; AND

3. ALLOCATE FUNDS TO INCREASE RESTROOM MAINTENANCE, MAKE MORE PARK RESTROOMS AVAILABLE, AND UPGRADE RESTROOMS TO COMPLY WITH ADA REQUIREMENTS.
