Action Items

Item A-1

(1) Receive Public Input on Fiscal Year 20-21 Work Plan Activities (2) Review and Discuss Results from the Community Survey; (3) (If Desired) Appoint Members to the Ad Hoc Work Plan Subcommittee; and (4) (If Desired) Make Recommendations to City Council on Proposed Work Plan for Fiscal Year 20-21

Chair Rona invited public comment.

The following members of the public addressed the Committee:

Carlene Brown reiterated comments from an earlier meeting that restorative justice should be front and center, especially given the appointment of Member Martinez; discussed addressing and repairing harm; the civil trial; and allowing relationships and the community to transform.

Chair Rona indicated that the Ad Hoc Work Plan Subcommittee would likely consider restorative justice.

Paula Amezola de Herrera provided background on herself; reported that she was running for Culver City School Board (CCUSD); discussed her commitment to improving the fabric of the community and ensuring that everyone is heard and has a voice; congratulated the Committee on their formation; suggested that the Committee hold Community Conversations; discussed renter protections; sexual harassment; the ban on adult soccer in City parks; and ensuring equal access for all people.

Gary Silbiger noted that the City took two decades to establish the Committee; wanted to see the City look at community activities; discussed the Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration Committee; his service as Mayor and Council Member; establishing a Cesar Chavez celebration; education; offering a variety of events each year; built-in racism and prejudice in society; special events; and staff training.

Kimberly Ferguson expressed support for comments made by former Mayor Silbiger and she wanted to see informative programming for the community on how to address issues.

Chair Rona reported that the Ad Hoc Outreach Subcommittee had prepared a set of recommendations that the EHRAC and the City had used to produce a public survey on relevant items.

Mily Huntley, Human Resources and Equity Manager, provided an overview of the community survey distribution and results.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding community survey results; missing responses from non-English speakers; the large number of people who do not file reports; providing clear methods for safe reporting of incidents; the importance of addressing people who don't feel safe reporting; adverse effects on the community; student concerns with school structure; unfair treatment and racism; a suggestion to sponsor study groups; potential collaboration with the School Board Subcommittee to provide programming; the importance of student input; the need for restructuring school functions; Committee purview; work of the School District over the past two years on a comprehensive plan to address equity and access; opposing perspectives; finding common ground; protected categories; Committee liaisons; collaboration with the Committee on Homelessness; providing a voice for the homeless; the importance of making it clear how people can communicate issues with the Committee; establishing a Communications Subcommittee; violent crime in homeless encampments; the need to address issues; offering Spanish translation of the survey; groundwork to access Spanish speakers; promotion and distribution of physical surveys in parks and at City Hall; establishing guidelines for community gatherings and conversations; ensuring that impacted individuals participate; shifting the way that cities relate to citizens; active engagement; the need to help people understand how the City works; The Brown Act; appreciation for the clarification regarding the inability to respond to Items Not on the Agenda; programming to allow people to get to know City staff; outreach done by the Police Department; bumping of heads and division within Culver City leadership; setting a good example; whether the Committee has the capacity to address homelessness; work to change the system; working within strengths; advocating for the homeless by educating the public; thinking of new possibilities; focusing on the well-being of the entire community; increasing quality of life; improving personal interactions; making a contribution to the City; the joint meeting between the Committee on Homelessness and the Parks, Recreation and Community Services Commission; hearing from affected parties; creating a platform for formerly homeless people to be heard; and appointments to the Ad Hoc Work Plan Subcommittee.

MOVED BY CHAIR RONA, SECONDED BY MEMBER DENNIS AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE EQUITY & HUMAN RELATIONS ADVISORY COMMITTEE: APPOINT VICE CHAIR VALVERDE AND MEMBERS GRIMES, MOAMMAR, AND MORGAN TO THE AD HOC WORK PLAN SUBCOMMITTEE.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Members regarding shortening the name of the Committee; removing the word "advisory" as all committees are advisory; increasing the purview of the Outreach Subcommittee to include Communication; the Work Plan Subcommittee; content of Committee Bylaws; review of work plans from other cities; and establishing a point person on the Work Plan Subcommittee to interact with staff.

oOo

Public Comment for Items NOT On the Agenda (Continued)

Chair Rona invited public participation.

The following members of the public addressed the Committee:

Will Rickards expressed appreciation to the Committee for their efforts and discussed his work with Vice Chair Valverde on the Parks, Recreation and Community Services Commission event "Growing Up Intercultural in Culver City."

Donna Kent discussed the process to report a complaint and people who might like to remain anonymous.

Items from Staff

Lisa Vidra, Senior Deputy City Attorney, indicated that per the request of the Committee at the previous meeting, the agenda packet included the Police Department policy for personnel complaints as well as the legal authority for conducting internal investigations and the Police Officer's Bill of Rights, and she indicated that members of the public could request the information from staff if interested.

Chair Rona received Committee consensus to agendize a presentation to explain the complaint process and differences between regular City staff and Police Department staff, and to invite Lieutenant Pete Hernandez of the Professional Standards Unit to speak about the process.

Items from Equity and Human Relations Advisory Committee Members

Member Dennis discussed the Public Comment period for Housing and Urban Development (HUD) rule changes regarding shelters that would require transgender human beings to stay in shelters that correspond to their gender at birth; difficulty finding shelter; organizations fighting the change; recent articles on transgender and gender non-binary people; and gender creative parenting.

Discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding the need for education about terminology and life experience of transgender and gender non-binary people; a recent online forum on hate violence in California; taking the opportunity to provide information on transgender and gender non-binary people to the community; the number of transgender and gender non-binary people in the country;

information compiled by the Los Angeles County Commission on Human Relations and support for the Work Plan Subcommittee to contact them; and available resources.

Chair Rona proposed a motion to make changes to the process by which the Labor Representative is appointed to the Committee and once approved, take the recommendations to the City Council. Member Bano seconded the motion and the discussion continued.

Serena Wright-Black, Assistant City Manager, reported that the City Council had discussed the matter at the August 24, 2020 meeting with agreement that the City Council Equity Subcommittee would reconsider the process for appointments to all Committees, Boards and Commissions.

Additional discussion ensued between staff and Committee Members regarding having the Committee propose a specific process; feedback from the public regarding a lack of transparency; timing of the discussion; scheduling; a suggestion to invite a speaker to address the issue; City Council consideration of the item; communication with a member of the City Council who expressed interest in Committee consideration of the item; speakers scheduled for the November meeting; finalization of the work plan in the October meeting; the amount of community concern; ongoing discussion of the work plan; starting the conversation in October and continuing into November; outreach to the City Council to determine where they are in their process before the next meeting; the deliberative process of determining the work plan; including Member Martinez in the process; clarification that the discussion is about the process moving forward; allowing everyone a chance to weigh in on the process; clarification that the City Council has tasked their Equity Subcommittee with examining the process for appointments to all bodies; and different requirements between bodies.

MOVED BY CHAIR RONA, SECONDED BY MEMBER BANO AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE EQUITY AND HUMAN RELATIONS ADVISORY COMMITTEE PLACE ON THE OCTOBER AGENDA AND CONTINUE INTO NOVEMBER, CONSIDERATION OF CHANGES TO THE PROCESS BY WHICH THE LABOR REPRESENTATIVE IS APPOINTED, AND ONCE APPROVED BY THE COMMITTEE, TAKE RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE CITY COUNCIL.

MOVED BY MEMBER DENNIS, SECONDED BY MEMBER BANO AND UNANIMOUSLY CARRIED, THAT THE MEETING BE ADJOURNED IN HONOR OF RUTH BADER GINSBERG.
