Action Items

Item A-1

CAC - 1) Update from Culver City Artist Laureate Alexey Steele on Projects and Activities for 2021; and, 2) Provide Comments as Appropriate

Chair Fleischer introduced the item.

Christine Byers, Cultural Affairs Manager, read public comment submitted by Dr. Janet Hoult discussing the Artist Laureate program, and Alexey Steele's "Love My Neighbor" program.

Alexey Steele, Artist Laureate, provided a presentation on his service as the first official Artist Laureate of the City; presented images from his "Love My Neighbor" program in 2021 as well as three major oil paintings that he created; discussed his goal to reaffirm the unique position of art in the past, present and future of the city; collaboration with staff and the Commission; the article in Culver City Neighbors magazine; engagement and reach of the events; the diverse group of artists in the city; the significance of the General Plan Update and providing input into the document; his ambassadorial engagement; an art gallery in Russia founded by his father; the rising international status of Culver City; the importance of art; opportunity for a direct connection with Culver City on a high profile international project; Culver City as a global brand; the need to connect the different parts of the creative economy; collaboration with the Culver City Arts Foundation (Culver Arts); showcasing the Artist Laureate Program at the annual holiday event held by Culver Arts at Village Well; appreciation to Janet Hault as the originator of the Artist Laureate Program; and the response in Russia to the collaborative multi-media concept that he is developing in a public art format.

Discussion ensued between staff and Commissioners regarding support for the thorough report and efforts of Mr. Steele during his tenure; the art and Sister City project; the vast body of work by Alexey Steele; the true spirit of the program; giving back to the community; the importance of art; building bridges between local and international communities; the need for an arts center in Culver City; appreciation for Mr. Steele's infectious energy; a request for a photograph of all the "Love My Neighbor" participants with their portraits; appreciation that Mr. Steele could also follow his own artistic process during his tenure; congratulations to Mr. Steele on the exhibition of his paintings; and appreciation for the work of Mr. Steele as a cultural ambassador as well as to Dr. Janet Hault, Culver Arts, Village Well and staff for their support of the program.

Alexey Steele felt that creation of an arts center was important; discussed art and the international angle; filling the void of the receding commercial model of galleries; the success of his father's gallery in Russia; and he acknowledged the importance of collaboration for success of the arts in the future.
