BACKGROUND/DISCUSSION

As a part of the FY 2023/2024 work plan; the Race Relations - Community Conversation event is the second of a two-part series. Our nation, and therefore our city, has long struggled with issues of race.

The Race Relations Community Conversation is meant to incorporate and build upon skills taught and learned in the Difficult Conversations Workshop. The two major objectives of this event would be that participants walk away having truly listened to each other and that they come to a better understanding of perspectives outside of their own.

In the July 25, 2023, Regular Meeting in discussions revolving around the work plan and proposed consolidation of event the Community Conversations - Race Relations was selected by consensus to move forward.

At the August 22, 2023, Special Meeting the Courageous Conversations Ad Hoc Subcommittee was created, and members appointed thereto.

At the September 26, 2023, Special Meeting consensus was achieved to hear a report from the Race Relations Ad Hoc Subcommittee.

FISCAL ANALYSIS
