BACKGROUND/DISCUSSION

Bicycle and Pedestrian Advisory Committee (BPAC) members have agendized a discussion of the concept of making some or all Culver City intersections "No Right on Red."

Staff reported to the Committee at the April 18, 2024 meeting that the City is not planning to implement a citywide "No Right on Red" policy, but will consider implementing "No Right on Red" at targeted intersections as appropriate when planning future street improvement projects. Staff will not be making a presentation.

Committee members will have an opportunity to discuss the topic and receive community feedback.
