PROCEDURE

Administration of Oath of Office

To begin the new term(s), the Committee Secretary will administer the Constitutional and Loyalty Oaths to the reappointed and newly appointed Committee member(s), if deemed necessary by the City Clerk's office. Both members and the body Secretary will sign duplicate originals of the document(s) and both members will retain a signed document.

Selection of the Chair and Vice Chair

Only those members present at the meeting shall have the right to vote, and the candidate receiving the majority of votes of those present shall be declared the "Chair" and/or "Vice Chair."

The function of Chair and Vice Chair are rotated among the members of a CBC, to allow the members to develop leadership skills in running a meeting.
