RECOMMENDATION

Staff recommends City Council consider approval of the recommendation for appointment of Robert Quinn, Assistant Superintendent of Business Services, to fill the Culver City Unified School District Labor Representative - Seat #9 of the Finance Advisory Committee.

BACKGROUND/DISCUSSION

The Finance Advisory Committee (FAC) consists of nine (9) members appointed by the City Council, with one (1) of those members being a representative of the Culver City Unified School District (CCUSD). The CCUSD Representative shall be appointed by the CCUSD Board of Education, with the Board being able to delegate the appointment to the CCUSD Superintendent. The CCUSD representative appointment shall be subject to final approval of the City Council.

On August 9, 2021, Staff received a notice of resignation from Sean Kearney, CCUSD Director of Fiscal Services. Mr. Kearney has served as a member of the Committee since its inception and has provided dedicated counsel regarding public financial matters and intersectional fiscal challenges and opportunities between the City and School District.

The recommendation has been received from the School District to transition Robert Quinn, CCUSD Assistant Superintendent of Business Services, as the CCUSD Appointment to the FAC.

The Bylaws of the FAC state that Labor Representatives and CCUSD Representatives will not have set terms, but shall serve for at least two years prior to a replacement being proposed, barring circumstances beyond the individual's control.
